

ESTABLISHED 1837.

JACKSONVILLE, CALHOUN COUNTY, ALA., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1894.

VOLUME 52

WE will now have a rest as to what is being done in Congress. The thing uppermost in the minds of most representatives is how they are to get back again.

GOVERNOR JONES has appointed Hon. J. A. Billups of Gadsden, to succeed Judge J. B. Tally. He is an able lawyer, and will no doubt make a faithful judge.

THE income tax is a just tax. It is levied with a view to the ability of the people to pay, and we feel confident that it now becomes a permanent feature of our revenue system.

THERE is probably no other place in the State where a boy or girl can be educated so as to be a first class teacher for so little money as at the State Normal School in Jacksonville.

No man in Alabama has been a closer student and worker for the past several years than Chappel Corey, and his friends over the State are gratified to know that he is now enjoying the pleasure of a European tour.

THE roads leading to Jacksonville are now in splendid condition, and the merchants here will pay the highest price for cotton this fall, and have decided to sell goods at a very small profit in order to bring back all the country trade which once came here.

THERE are several wealthy companies in the East that have decided to build large cotton mills in South to manufacture their coarse goods. It is only a question of time when nearly all the coarse cotton goods will be made in the cotton growing States.

THE new tariff bill levies an income on those who have not in many years had to contribute of their abundance to the support of the government. It is certainly right that they who are most able to pay should contribute their share to the support of that which affords protection to their life and property.

CALHOUN presents to the Fourth District a candidate for the nomination for Congress who has been a prominent Democrat for years; a man who is distinguished for his ability; a man in whom the people have confidence and are willing to trust; a man against whose private or political life no charge can be brought.

THE session of Congress which has just adjourned has done many good things; but if it had given us the free and unlimited coinage of silver, and had taken the prohibitory tax off of state banks, we believe the people would feel much more like it had discharged its whole duty.

THERE is no question but the people every year are growing more and more in favor of lengthening the terms of our officials, and thus having fewer elections. In discussing this question the Gadsden Times News very sensibly says:

"It is perhaps true that we have too much politics in our country. With the election of a president every four years, governors and congressmen every two years, we are kept in a constant political broil. The result is as soon as one fellow is elected to office the other fellow begins to plan to get him out; as soon as one party is placed in power the other party begins to plan to sweep it out the next election. This breeds demagogues and fosters political corruption. Why not give the president six years, governors four years, and make them ineligible to a second election. It might be wise to give our national representatives four years and let the senatorial term remain as it now is. We would then have more legislation and less politics, more patriotism and less demagoguery."

CALHOUN DEMOCRATS

Meet in Convention and Select Eleven Delegates to Congressional Convention.

They are instructed to support Hon. John M. McLeroy. They are all his personal friends and will make every effort to nominate him.

The Calhoun county convention was called to order in the Court House at Jacksonville last Saturday at 11 o'clock by Mr. D. T. Goodwin, chairman of the executive committee, who stated its object to be to select eleven delegates to represent the county in the convention of the fourth congressional district to meet at Anniston on Sept. 4, and on his motion, S. D. G. Brothers, Esq., was elected temporary chairman.

On motion of Mr. R. P. Thompson, Wm. A. Davis was elected temporary secretary and representatives of the press present temporary assistant secretaries; on an amendment offered by Mr. D. T. Powers.

They state as grounds for contest, malconduct and fraud on the part of the inspectors and clerks in Beat 15; illegal voting, refusal to accept illegal votes, and improper counting of votes; and state it said illegal votes taken from the number declared to have been given for said Kelly and Scarbrough would reduce their number below a majority.

On motion of Dr. T. W. Ayers, a committee consisting of one from each beat was appointed by the chair to nominate eleven delegates and eleven alternates to the congressional convention, as follows:

T. W. Ayers, chairman; Frank Wakefield, Albert Young, Dock Mintz, A. A. Williams, B. F. Carpenter, J. N. Hood, Sam Love, Alf Morgan, S. N. Milligan, H. H. Constantine, W. H. Vincent, D. T. Goodwin, F. M. Savage, O. F. Davenport, Wm. Bell, J. M. Curry.

On motion of A. P. Agee, Esq., it was Resolved, That the delegates to the congressional convention be authorized and instructed to fill any vacancies in the delegation from the alternates selected by this convention.

The committee reported the following 11 delegates and 11 alternates, who were duly elected, the name of D. Z. Goollett, being substituted for that of J. H. Caldwell, at latter's request:

Delegates—John B. Knox, T. W. Ayers, J. S. Moore, M. Hardin, J. Willett, E. G. Robertson, Wm. A. Davis, S. D. G. Brothers, W. C. Gray, L. N. Downing, D. T. Goodwin.

Alternates—W. W. Scott, D. Z. Goollett, W. G. Tawstall, Jr., W. H. Vincent, D. D. McLeod, T. H. Barry, S. P. Kennedy, Perry Patterson, W. H. Weatherly, R. P. Thompson, J. P. Storey.

On motion of John M. Caldwell, it was Resolved, That the elected delegates and alternate delegates at this convention be instructed to vote in this district convention as a unit as a majority of the acting delegates present in the convention, shall direct.

Jno. B. Knox, Esq., offered the following resolution:

Whereas, In Jno. M. McLeroy we recognize a Democrat of great ability and integrity and one who has ever been a patriot in war and in peace, therefore be it Resolved, That the delegates from this county to the next congressional convention from this district to be held Sept. 4th, be instructed to present Col. McLeroy's name for nomination and to use all honorable means to secure that end.

After remarks by Jno. H. Caldwell, Esq., seconding the resolution, it was unanimously adopted.

On motion of J. J. White, Esq., it was Resolved, That the thanks of the Democratic party of Calhoun county be tendered to our county executive committee for their efficient and successful work for the party during the last

Mr. D. T. Goodwin, chairman of the committee, expressed his appreciation of the resolution.

On motion of A. P. Agee, Esq., it was Resolved, That the thanks of the convention are tendered to the chairman, secretary and assistant secretaries for the able and impartial manner in which they have discharged their duties.

And then on motion of John B. Knox, Esq., the convention adjourned.

S. D. G. Brothers, Chairman,
W. A. Davis, Secy.

IN THE COURT HOUSE.

News Items Gathered by a Ramble in the Different Offices.

Messrs. L. F. Greer and N. J. Stevens have filed a five hundred dollar bond, in the clerk's office to contest the election of Messrs. R. D. Kelly and W. G. Scarbrough to seats in the next general Assembly of Alabama. They give as sureties on their bond, Messrs. B. G. McClellan, T. L. Harvey, E. L. Lester, C. N. Tows and W. T. Powers.

The printed resolution sent out by the Jeffersonian State Executive Committee was unanimously endorsed.

A resolution commanding Hon. Reuben F. Kolb as a true patriot and statesman was unanimously endorsed.

A resolution favoring honest elections was unanimously adopted.

The resolution requesting our United States Senators, Morgan and Pugh, to concur with the Chandler bill for a Senate Committee to be appointed to investigate the state election in Alabama was adopted.

A committee of five appointed to select eleven delegates for our Congressional convention, which resulted in the following names:

Dr. W. A. Shelton, his alternate S. G. Wright; K. S. Woodruff, his alternate Dr. J. E. Crook; W. T. Powers, his alternate D. T. Macon; J. H. Fite, his alternate John S. Parker; Rev. D. P. Williams, his alternate M. H. Bowling; N. J. Stevens, his alternate Rev. Thos. Smith; A. T. Hanna, his alternate J. C. Saber; T. L. Harvey, his alternate Wm. Craig; E. C. Lusk, his alternate Mack Whiteside; L. F. Greer, his alternate R. L. Allen; J. L. Reaves, his alternate Dr. A. N. Buckle.

A resolution was adopted pledging ourselves to the People's party cause.

A. P. Longshore being the choice of Calhoun county by our party, the delegation to the 4th congressional district convention was instructed to vote for him.

It was agreed to organize honest election leagues in every precinct in the county.

A resolution was also passed denouncing the alleged election frauds practiced in the black belt counties.

A resolution was also passed that the People's party pledge themselves never to be reconciled for organized democracy to rule Alabama under its present organization.

The mass meeting notwithstanding the unfavorable weather was well attended. The court house was filled to its full capacity—some estimate not less than 600 were in attendance.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 1, 1894.

DEATH OF COL. MCKLEROY.

Col. John M. McKleroy is dead. He breathed his last at his home in Anniston Thursday evening at 9 o'clock.

While it was known to his personal friends that he was quite sick, yet no one looked for his spirit to take its flight so soon.

The announcement of this death will cast a gloom over every heart in Calhoun county.

He was the most beloved man in Alabama, and all the state will mourn his loss.

His body was placed to rest in Anniston Friday afternoon at five o'clock.

To our personal knowledge, the nomination of Col. McKleroy as the Democratic representative of the Fourth Congressional District was practically secured.

Our people are all gratified that he had so recently received an evidence of the love and appreciation of the people of his county.

The action of the Calhoun county convention last Saturday in instructing its delegates to the congressional convention to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of Hon. John M. McKleroy, did nothing more than what was expected of it.

Not only did the convention instruct for Col. McKleroy, but it did it unanimously. Not only unanimously, but enthusiastically.

The convention gave such an endorsement as was evident to all observers that it was for Col. McKleroy for other reasons than that he was a county man.

A distinguished gentleman in the convention voiced the sentiment of the people of the county when he said he favored the nomination of Col. McKleroy, not only because he was a county man; but because he was an able man; a broad-gauge man; a man who if placed in congress and kept in the position as long as many have been, would be a statesman.

The death of any man who is as honorable and pure in his private life as was Col. McKleroy, is a calamity to any community, to any county, to any State.

To the members of the family who are thus so sadly bereaved, we desire to tender our most sincere condolence.

HON. LESLIE E. BROOKS.

The distinguished gentleman of Mobile whose name heads this article, is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House of Representatives of this State.

While he is not generally known to the people of this section of the State, no man in Mobile is more favorably known in that section of the State. He is a cultured gentleman, a thorough parliamentarian courteous, considerate of the rights and privileges of others, and whilst affable and pleasant, is always firm enough to do his duty.

A worthy gentleman in Mobile whom we know personally well, says Mr. Brooks is in thorough harmony with all advances in science, letters and arts, and perhaps no man in the State has studied more thoroughly than he has the industrial and financial questions now at issue, or is better prepared to deal with them in that spirit of fairness that would settle them in accordance with the principles of equity and justice.

There is no question but Mr. Brooks is thoroughly equipped to preside over the next session of the legislature, and no mistake will be made in his promotion.

From the result of the county conventions, it is now known that nominations are assured to Clarke in the First District, Stallings in the Second, Harrison in the Third, Wheeler in the Eighth and Underwood in the Ninth. No one of the candidates has votes enough to nominate in the Fourth, Fifth or Sixth. In the Seventh, most of the counties have sent uninstructed delegations, but the indications are that Denson will be nominated; notwithstanding the way in which he carried his skillful during the State campaign.

NEVER was a more harmonious convention held than the county convention here last Saturday. All present were for McKleroy, and there was perfect unanimity in every motion submitted.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL.
The new tariff bill is not only a blunder bill than the one known as the McKinley bill, but is such a bill as the Democratic party can feel proud of, and one which it can well afford to go before the people with an ask for an endorsement.

The new bill makes a heavy cut on nearly all goods which the farmer and the poorer classes of people use. As an example, it has so cut the price on woolen goods that many a poor man who heretofore has not been able to pay the price required for blankets, will be able to keep himself and family warm at night under a good woolen blanket, and provide comfortable clothing made of wool for them to wear during the day. It also reduces the duty on cotton cloth about thirty per cent. It makes a heavy reduction in all medicinal articles which people ordinarily buy from drug stores, such as camphor, epsom salts, castor oil, cod liver oil and opium. It reduces the duty on tin plates from 75.44 to 42.32. Manufactured tin is reduced from 55 to 35. Screws reduced from 47 to 33. Wheels from $3 to 41. Gold foil used in plugging teeth from 4 to 30. Silver leaf from 77 to 30.

But the above is only an enumeration of a few of the very great many articles which the masses of the people buy daily that the duty has been reduced from twenty-five to fifty per cent.

The bill places on the free list cotton bagging, binding twine and barbed wire. The change alone in these three articles will save to the farmers of this country thousands of dollars annually.

While the new bill does not place coal and iron ore on the free list, it reduces coal, bituminous, from 22.72 to 12.12 and iron ore from 42.72 to 22.77. This feature of the bill we consider most favorable to this section. The reduction affords a relief to the consumer, and gives such protection to our industries as will satisfy the manufacturer, and we believe will restore such confidence that all the furnaces now shut down in this section will be put in blast, and the wheels of other idle industries will once more be put in motion.

As a result of the settling of the tariff question, we soon expect to see all the industries in Anniston put in operation, and that city in not more than twelve months have an era of prosperity which has never been equalled there before. We also confidently believe that it is only a question of a short time until important industries will be established in Jacksonville and Piedmont, and that prosperity will prevail in all portions of Calhoun county.

The history of this country teaches that we go from one extreme to another. During the panic which has existed for the past two years, money has been hoarded in large sums in the important centres. This money will now seek investment, and no other portion of the country offers such inducement to capital as does the South; but few places in the South have anything like the natural resources that are to be found in Calhoun county.

During the last few years the people of the South especially, have demanded that a tax be levied on incomes. The democratic party has respected this demand, and in the new tariff bill is a clause levying a tax on incomes.

When the vote was taken on the passage of this bill in the House, all the Populists, and all the Democrats with, we believe, four exceptions voted in favor of it, while the Republicans voted against it.

Since writing editorial which appears elsewhere in reference to the candidacy of Hon. Leslie E. Brooks for the Speakership of the next House of Representative of this State, we have noticed statement in some of the State papers that the friends of Hon. Elbert D. Willett will present his claims for the speakership. Elbert Willett is one of the most worthy young men in Alabama, and there is no man whom Calhoun county would support more cheerfully. We still claim him as a Calhoun county man.

THE new tariff bill became a law without the signature of President Cleveland. It is not such a bill as he desired, but he says it is a vast improvement to conditions which existed under the McKinley bill.

He takes the position that free raw materials is the foundation of logical and sensible tariff reform, and did not care to place his signature to a bill which afforded a protection to coal and iron.

Written on all sides that the nomination of Capt. Joe F. Johnston for Governor two years from now is the way to reunite the white men of Alabama in the Democratic party.

We see it stated that the Jeffersonians and Republicans have agreed on the nomination of William Aldrich, of Shelby, for congress in the Fourth District. He has been a lifelong Republican, and from all we can gather will not please the Jeffersonians in this county. The Calhoun Jeffersonians are for Longshore.

DEATH OF MRS. COKER.

We are pained to announce the death of Mrs. M. N. Coker, wife of Commissioner Coker, who died at her home at O'atchie last Monday night, Aug. 27th, 1894.

Mrs. Coker was a most excellent woman, and her death has cast a gloom over the entire community in which she lived.

We sympathize most sincerely with our friend, the bereaved husband, in this hour of his affliction.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Puregoic, Resin, Drap, Coddy & Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotics?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

JACKSONVILLE, CALHOUN COUNTY, ALA. SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1894.

VOLUME 58.

NOW is the time to save hay, and the farmers should not fail to save every pound possible.

THE passage of the new tariff bill is the key to the unlocking of the coming of an era of prosperity for the South.

PEOPLE who want to buy farms in a county where they can travel over good roads should come to Calhoun. Here they will find the best roads in the State.

IF the Railroad Commission of Alabama has not the power to prevent railroads from discriminating against one town in favor of others on freight rates, then its power should be increased, or the commission had about as well be abolished.

WE doubt if anything could be done which would be worth more to the agricultural interest, or which would improve the stock in Calhoun more, than an annual county fair. If twenty-five men with the energy of Alf Truitt will determine to have an annual fair in this county, they can make a success of it.

The Jacksonville Republican made its first appearance last Saturday under its new management, and its columns were brimful of local news from every section of the county. Dr. Ayers is a gentleman well known in this section and a forcible writer, and we predict great success for the Republican in the future.—Piedmont Inquirer.

AS we are just now entering into another campaign in the Fourth District, let us make it a fair, honorable, high-toned canvass. Let the candidates go before the people and discuss the issues involved, and be considerate of the rights and feelings of others. Let us have no personal abuse from any quarters. We must learn to differ upon matters political and yet be friends.

HON. W. P. Howell, of Cleburne, is a candidate for the position of enrolling clerk of the next Alabama House of Representatives; a place which he has heretofore filled with credit to himself and to the satisfaction of the members of the legislature. He is well known to the people of Alabama as a pure, high-toned, honorable gentleman, with much natural ability; and we predict that he will be elected to the place to which he aspires by a very large vote.

THE recent tariff bill has completely knocked the life out of the combination which had been formed for the purpose of increasing the price of bagging. Since the Democratic Congress has placed bagging on the free list, the farmers are now independent of this unholy combination. If necessary, they can now order their bagging from England, and get it as cheap as it has ever been sold in the United States. A protective tariff makes it possible to form trusts on many other articles just the same as on jute bagging.

GEORGIA is having an interesting contest just now for the election of a successor to Hon. Patrick Walsh in the United States Senate. While we concede that Messrs. Bacon and Turner are both able and deserving men, we hope that Senator Walsh will be elected as his own successor; for the reason that we believe he will as ably represent Georgia in the Senate as either of the other gentlemen, and we feel confident that he will be of much greater value to the development of the material interests of the Southern States than would either of his competitors. Being a United States Senator gives Mr. Walsh an influence which he would not have otherwise, and he never loses an opportunity to get in work which he thinks will be of interest to the South. Rather than retire him, give us more like him.

What this Congress Has Done.

Representative McMillan, of Tennessee, has inserted in the Congressional Record a speech intended as a summary of what the present Congress has accomplished. His associates have deferred to him in preparing that statement, and therefore it is in the nature of a semi-official showing, from a political standpoint, of what the majority have done.

After reviewing the laws it has heretofore passed, Mr. McMillan says:

"I come to a few of the things it has done during this administration. It has repealed all force laws and left elections free. It found a system of oppressive laws on the statute books authorizing the use of troops at the polls, and has repealed them.

"In the dark days of the republic the Republican party also enacted a law authorizing the United States Supervisors of Elections and Deputy Marshals to be appointed by the Federal Courts, wholly independent of the States where the elections were to be held. They were expected to dominate and did dominate the elections. Thousands of men were arrested without cause and imprisoned without reason in the States of New York, Ohio and Indiana in a single election, and imprisoned to prevent them from voting. They were turned out after it was too late to vote, without the formality of indictment, presentment, arraignment of trial. The Democratic party determined this should not continue. It has kept up the fight nearly a sixth of a century, and at last has triumphed during this administration.

"It has repealed the law authorizing the President to levy and remit taxes. I cannot conceive of a surrender of a great prerogative more dangerous and unpardonable than this. We pledged in our platform that we would wrest this ancient right from the President, to whom it had been improperly surrendered, and give it back to the people's representatives. We have kept the promise.

"This Congress has also authorized the States to tax greenbacks and other United States currency. The law authorizing the issue of greenbacks, and the Treasury warrants under the Sherman act exempted them from state, and municipal taxation. Hundreds of millions thereby escaped all taxation."

Mr. McMillan next reviews the reductions of appropriations heretofore set forth by Representative Sayres of the Appropriation Committee, and then continues:

"It has passed the most stringent laws against trusts ever enacted in this country. At the same time the Attorney-General has instituted proceedings in the courts to try to dissolve illegal trusts. The amendment offered by the Senator from Alabama (Mr. Morgan) carries into law the most effective means ever devised for controlling and curbing the power of trusts. A law was passed against them last Congress, but it deals with the question in a way so mild and gingerly that it has not been found sufficient to crush these combinations that have been fostered under protection. The democratic party was pledged to the enactment of more stringent legislation against trusts, and it has kept its pledge.

"It has inaugurated an income tax, thereby taking off want and putting them on wealth. It is true the Senate amendment has changed somewhat this feature of the bill and have released some that ought to have been taxed; still, it remains a great benefit to the American people.

"It found the treasury bankrupt, and by the Tariff bill it not only replenished it, but it is at the same time reducing taxes."

From the report which our correspondents have sent from all portions of the county for the past two weeks there is no question but Calhoun's corn crop this year will be the finest she has grown since the war.

A WANDERER.

A CALHOUN COUNTY BOY WHO RAN OFF AND HAD A STORMY TIME.

Synopsis of a Letter Which He Writes the Republican.

As I sit in my room in a historic old boarding house in New York harbor, and view the cities of New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City, my mind turns back to the time when, fourteen years of age, I did as many boys of that age had done—ran away from home. That was six years ago, and I can now see the mistake I made in leaving a good home in Choctawhatchee valley, not far north of the village of White Plains.

The first year I was away from home I worked in the city of Aniston. From there I went to Florida, and began to follow the sea. In the latter part of the summer of 1880 I made my first day's water voyage. I sailed from Clear Water Harbor, Florida, to Mobile on the schooner Asil. I had a burning desire to see some foreign land. I went to Jacksonville, Florida, and took a Nova Scotia schooner for Demerara. The vessel was laden with lumber. I remember the Christmas dinner we had on that voyage. It consisted of a turkey, a dolphin and a few other fish we had caught the evening before. As we were sailing along off the coast of the St. Thomas of the West Indian Islands, the crew consisted of seven men, and the wife and daughter of Captain Perry. We were 22 days from Jacksonville, when we stopped at the city of Georgetown three weeks, discharging and receiving a fresh cargo; an item of which was 156 tons of old iron consigned to a foundry in St. Johns, New Brunswick. I admired the little tropical city of Georgetown. While there I bought several pets; such as monkeys, parrots, cockatoos, and a large boa constrictor, which was over seven feet in length.

We left Demerara early in February, 1881, on our northern passage, expecting to be in cold weather again in a week's time. But alas! The sirocco and three of her crew found their resting place in the roaring Atlantic.

The third day after leaving Demerara the great seas were breaking over us. For awhile our ship seemed to rise and roll over the awful walls of water that stood up around us. But she soon began to be sluggish. Our jib-boom was soon cut away; then the fore-topmast broke with a report similar to that of a piece of field artillery. Now the captain, with a voice as shrill as the startled cry of a gull, gave the command to man the pumps; but before this command could be put into execution, there washed over the side a volume of green fluid looking as large as a mountain. This carried away three of our men, and tore a hole in the deck just above the main-mast.

The captain, his wife and child and two of the officers now disappeared from my sight. I remained at my post until the dawn of day, when I discovered that I was alone on a sinking ship. When I investigated, I found that both the life boats were gone. I was now washed from the deck to the cruel waves. As I arose I fortunately caught a spar which had been lashed from the ship. I now saw the ship rise and fall and was buried in the sea.

The storm continued all day and it was difficult to keep my hold on the spar. The second day the wind abated. During the second night I became so weak that it was difficult for me to keep my head up and my eyes open. The third day, when I was almost exhausted, I saw a small speck in the distance. I soon saw a volume of smoke rise from it. I then knew it was a steamship, and my heart began to beat afresh. I began to raise my hands frantically, and to wish I had some object to waive, but had nothing to use as a flag; was even bare headed. The ship was soon close enough for me to attract attention by shouting; but I tried this, but to no avail; for I had been in water so long that I was too hoarse to shout. It now seemed that the ship was going to pass within a few yards and not see me. But as I had about decided that I was doomed, I saw several men and heard a shout. The ship began to slow up and come near me. I grasped a line which was thrown me and was drawn aboard. It was two days before I was able to be out of bed.

The ship upon which I was taken was a royal mail steamer of the Harrison Line of Liverpool. She went to the port of Demerara, which I had left seven days before. Here I learned that Capt. Perry and his family, together with officers and other gentlemen, had arrived thirty-six hours ahead of me.

I remained at Demerara thirteen days and sailed for New York on a sugar ship.

The latter part of March I again sailed from New York for China. On the 2d of April, and four days from New York, just as we were entering the gulf stream, I had an accident which almost cost me my life. I was washed very severely by a sea and was left in Maler, an island in the Mediterranean sea south of Italy, and is the island of the shipwreck of St. Paul as he was being carried from Alexandria to Rome as a prisoner.

I was kept in Maler fifteen days, and was sent to France by the British Government. I was in Dunkirk fourteen days. I was then sent to a hospital at Greenwich, London, where I remained two months. I then sailed for New York and arrived July 31, 1891.

While at Demerara, I met a young English lady, whom I afterwards married in Chicago at the World's Fair. Together with my bride I went to Guatemala, where her father was a contractor. I now decided to settle down, but my young bride lived only a few weeks, and I at once again began to rove.

In a few weeks I was again on the sea, and have since then visited several countries.

But in all this travel, I have found little pleasure, and have decided to return to my old home. My advice to Calhoun county boys is, to stay at home.

In the Court House.

The commissioners court has been in session this week giving an opportunity to those whose assessments have been raised to show cause why it should be reduced.

Judge Crook had two small cases before him this week for trial, but both were withdrawn for the want of proof to convict.

The will of Col. Jno. M. McElroy was filed in the Probate Court's office this week. It was executed in 1888, and leaves his property to be divided equally between his wife and two children. His names as executors of his will, Mrs. McElroy and his son, Capt. W. H. McElroy.

By an investigation of the Treasurer's office, we learn that of the taxes collected in Calhoun last year, there was paid out for working the public roads and building bridges, $16,503; for expenses of the circuit court, $1,750; for expenses of the Aniston city court, $5,926.

From this it will be seen that it takes money to run courts and have good roads and bridges. But all agree that money expended on the roads has been well invested; for nothing is worth more to a county than good roads.

WE do not believe that the United States can produce a better piece of Presidential timber two years hence than Vice-President Adlai Stevenson. He is the man to unite the South and Northwest.

SLEEP.

A good sleep is one of the farmer's best servants.

Sheep thrive better with a frequent change of pasture.

Properly managed the sheep is a wonderful enricher of the soil.

Clover and sheep are hard to beat in building up a run down farm.

With good management wool alone or lambs alone will pay for the keep of the sheep leaving the other for profit.

While sheep pay better than any other class of stock on poor land, if well managed they will also pay us on good smooth land.

Sleep, when on pasture, scatter their mature much more evenly than any other class of stock, and it is of much more value to the land.

Sheep, when on pasture, scatter their mature much more evenly than any other class of stock, and it is of much more value to the land.

Cows. If the cows are heated before milking, when their udders are heavy from the accumulating lacteal fluid, it doesn't do much good to cool the milk off afterwards so far as repairing damage wrought.

There is a use for milk to which it is rarely put. We refer to the feeding of milk to foals. We all concede the value of cows' milk for pigs, for calves, and for human beings, but for some reason it strikes us as odd to think of feeding it to colts. We have talked with a number of horsemen who have at times given milk to colts, and all spoke highly of the practice.

When carrying the big milk can down to the stable before the evening milking it is likely to be hot enough to feel blistering to the touch from standing in the rays of the sun all day. By putting fresh milk into it in such a condition it simply invites it to spoil before morning.

If you want your son to like the farm, get him interested in the live stock. There is no surer way of keeping him at home. This gives him a good animal now and then for his own, and help him to care for it in the way that will make it of the most value. Such practical lessons go further than words.

CARE OF PIGS.

The beneficial effect of exercise on the health and digestion of all animals is universally admitted. To determine its relation to the economical use of food, and also to learn the value of grass as a cheap article of diet for pigs, a series of experiments were undertaken at the Utah station.

The results obtained show that pigs allowed to run loose in the pastures and fed grain make the most rapid gain. Among the pigs kept in confinement those fed grain and grass made a more rapid growth than those given grain only. Green grass appears to be of the greatest value as an appetizer, but pigs kept on it alone made a slow growth.

Exercise seems to be necessary to increase consumption, and probably digestion, that growth, may be rapid and economical.—New York World.

POULTRY.

Refuse suds from the wash tub for lice from the poultry house. Make them stronger by adding a pound of lye to the tub and apply while hot with a watering pot or spray pump, everywhere about the roosts. If boiling hot the soapsuds can be used to make kerosene emulsion by adding three quarts of oil to the tub and running the mixture rapidly several times through a garden or force pump. The emulsion is a good lice destroyer.

HON. THOMAS L. WATSON has again been nominated by the Populists of the Tenth Georgia District for congress.

HON. MARDIS L. WOOD will receive the enthusiastic support of the Democracy of the Fourth District.

WE have no idea that there is anything in all this talk of President Cleveland for a third term. There is not the slightest evidence that he will ask for it.

WE need to do something to improve the agricultural interests of this county, and we believe a county fair would be a step in this direction. What say the people to a fair next winter?

WE hope to see the next House and Senate of the United States composed of a sufficient number of men who favor the free and unlimited coinage of silver to restore this metal to its constitutional position.

DR. T. W. AYERS has purchased the Jacksonville Republican, and comes out last week with a graceful salutary. The paper was just such a one as Dr. Ayers can get up—it was a good one.—Oxford Enterprise.

PEOPLE all through this section of Alabama who have sons and daughters whom they wish to prepare to teach school, should take advantage of the State Normal School and send them to Jacksonville, where they have no tuition to pay, and where they receive the very best advantages.

THE Normal School at Jacksonville belongs to the people of Alabama, and we would be glad to see the people in every county in this section of the State take such an interest in it as to send their sons and daughters here to have them prepared as teachers. They can educate them at no other place for so small an amount of money.

IF our correspondents only knew how they had been complimented for furnishing all the news of Calhoun county to the readers of the REPUBLICAN last week, they would be encouraged to write regularly. A number of people have said to us that it was the most perfect report of the county news they had ever seen in any newspaper.

THE small vote polled in the last State election is causing considerable comment. Many who registered failed to vote. We believe that a study of the vote in State elections for the last several elections will be profitable, and hope the study and comments will continue.

While there are disappointments as to the result of the convention, we feel confident that no feeling has been engendered which will prevent the nominee from receiving the full party vote of the District.

WE welcome to our exchange list The Jacksonville REPUBLICAN, published at Jacksonville, Ala. It has been purchased by our old friend and former fellow-townsman, Dr. T. W. Ayers, and the current issue contains a ringing salutary from his graceful pen. It goes without saying that the REPUBLICAN will from henceforth be a fearless and aggressive champion and an influential exponent of Simon-Pure Democratic principles.—Hartwell (Ga.) Sun.

SOME of the eastern cotton mills are accounting for the necessity of closing their mills by saying that there is an overproduction of cotton goods. This is not true in this country. The people have nothing like the amount of cotton goods they absolutely need. The trouble here is a lack of a sufficient amount of money. We should have in Alabama at least five times the amount of money per capita that we have at present. Under the new tariff, the money will not be drawn from the South as heretofore. Now give us the free and unlimited coinage of silver so as to increase our values, and we will soon get out of debt and be a prosperous and happy people.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 8, 1894.

For Congress, Fourth District.
HON. MARDIS L. WOOD,
OF Dallas.

HON. MARDIS L. WOOD.

The nomination of Hon. Mardis L. Wood by the convention in Anniston last Tuesday as the standard bearer of the Democracy in the Fourth District, was a deserved recognition of a man, who, for a number of years has given more time and work in the interest of the Democratic party than another man in the State of Alabama.

The work which he has done for the party has been done without reward, or the hope of reward. Never before has he asked anything at the hands of the people; and he consented to become a candidate for the nomination which he has received only after he had been petitioned to do so by the best and most prominent men of his county.

There never lived in any district a more unselfish and self-sacrificing Democrat than Mardis L. Wood.

There came to the Anniston convention from Dallas county the strongest delegation that ever went from that county to any convention. It was composed of men who are prominent in the party, men who rank among the best business men in Alabama, and men who are most prominent in the State in their different denominations as Christians and church workers. Men, who under no circumstance, could be induced to lend their support in securing the nomination of a man who is not worthy the suffrages of the people.

This delegation came to the convention for the purpose of securing the nomination of Mr. Wood. They were earnest and enthusiastic in their support of him.

Mr. Wood will soon commence and make a thorough canvass of every county in the District.

The Congressional conventions in the State last Tuesday resulted as follows: In the First District, Hon. R. H. Clarke was nominated without opposition. In the Second District, Congressman Stallings was nominated on the first ballot. In the Third District, Gen. G. P. Harrison, of Lee, was nominated on the first ballot. In the Fourth District, Hon. M. L. Wood of Dallas, was nominated on the twelfth ballot. In the Fifth District, Judge J. E. Cobb was nominated by acclamation. In the Sixth District, at this writing, the convention is in a deadlock. Congressman Bankhead is in the lead with seventeen votes; twenty-seven being necessary to a choice. In the Seventh, Hon. W. H. Denson was nominated on the first ballot. In the Eighth, Gen. Joe Wheeler was nominated by acclamation. In the Ninth, Oscar W. Underwood of Birmingham, was nominated by acclamation.

The Republicans of the Fourth District held a congressional convention at Calera last Wednesday and nominated William F. Aldrich, of Shelby, for congress. Among the prominent politicians said to have been at this convention we notice the names of Gen. J. W. Burke, of Jacksonville, Ex-Chancellor Turner, C. C. Cadle Jr., Bob Moseley, Jr., of Birmingham, Judge C. W. Buckley, of Montgomery, E. J. Witherly, of Shelby, Bill Stevens of Calhoun.

HON. MARDIS L. WOOD is 34 years old. He has probably done more work for the Democratic party than any man of his age in the State. He has never before asked any office at the hands of the people. He is an able lawyer, and is well known to the people of the State as a politician of great influence. On the silver question, he agrees fully with Senator Morgan.

With the fine corn crop which we will raise this year, no farmer in Calhoun county should fail to fatten a sufficient amount of meat to last him all next year. So far as Calhoun is concerned, let us not have to buy a pound of meat raised outside the county next year.

CONGRESSMAN DENSON is no longer carrying his own skillet. It is now being carried by the Democratic party. We are willing to believe that the Democracy of the Seventh knew what it was doing, and shall not object to seeing Billy reelected.

MARDIS L. WOOD

NOMINATED ON THE 12TH BALLOT.

S. D. G. Brothers Twice Received Votes Enough to nominate Him—He was Given a Perfect Ovation.

The Democratic convention of the Fourth District held in Anniston last Tuesday goes to record as one of the most exciting conventions ever held in the State.

John S. Mooreing was made permanent chairman of the convention, and W. A. Davis and T. N. Crumpton were selected as secretaries.

We haven't space to give full account of the proceedings of the convention, and give the following proceedings as reported by the Anniston Hot Blast:

H. H. Stewart, of Dallas, nominated Mardis L. Wood.

W. B. Browne, of Shelby, named Col. W. T. Smith.

Cecil Browne, of Talladega, presented the name of Gaston A. Robbins.

The roll for counties was then called for ballots.

Calhoun, Chilton and Cleburne passed, Dallas voted 16 for Wood, Shelby passed and so did Talladega.

Then they started over again.

Calhoun voted her 11 for Wood,

Chilton voted one for Robbins and 4 for Wood, Shelby voted 7 for S.

D. G. Brothers, of Jacksonville, and Talladega cast her 10 votes for the same man. Cleburne also cast 4 votes for Brothers.

J. Willett then arose and said that the Calhoun delegation had been for Wood as against Robbins, but he for one was not for Wood against a Calhoun county man.

Jno B. Knox got up then and made a speech. Dallas, so he said had agreed to give her sixteen votes to Col. McLeroy and that as that noble man was out of the race the Calhoun county delegation was in gratitude bound to stick to Dallas, even against a county man.

Pandemonium then raged.

Chairman Mooreing rapped his knuckles bare trying to get order.

Somebody handed him a cane, but this had no visible effect.

Things finally quieted down, and the Calhoun delegation, after having been polled, cast its 11 votes for Brothers.

The house went wild again.

Mr. Brothers, who was in the audience, was surrounded by his host of friends and cheering was deafening.

Joe Willett was also the centre of a crowd and praises for his manly stand for his countryman were loud and long.

Comparative quiet prevailed again after a time.

Chairman Mooreing had in the meantime grown very boisterous, his knuckles were raw and the cane gavel was getting shattered.

W. B. Browne, of Shelby, moved to adjourn, but he was declared out of order.

Shelby then changed to Smith, Chilton to Robbins and Dallas to Smith.

This ended the first ballot and Secretary Davis announced the result.

It was: Brothers, 25; Smith 23; Robbins, 5.

Twenty-seven was necessary to a choice.

A motion was then made to adjourn for dinner, it then being 1:30 o'clock, until 3.

It was carried by a vote of thirty to twenty-two.

Calhoun county voted five for and five against, one of the delegates being out.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The convention assembled shortly after 3 o'clock.

The second ballot was called and the counties voted as follows:

Calhoun 11 for Brothers; Chilton, 5 for Robbins; Cleburne, 4 for Robbins; Dallas 16 for Smith; Talladega, 10 for Robbins. Brothers getting 11, Robbins 19 and Smith 23. Nine others resulted the same way.

The twelfth ballot, however, brought forth wonders.

On the twelfth Calhoun voted 11 for Wood, Chilton passed, Dallas cast 16 for Wood, Shelby 7 for Brothers, Talladega 10 for Brothers. Chilton voted for Wood.

Mr. Willett arose here and said he stood exactly where he did before when Calhoun had a chance to nominate a county man. Another vote was then taken and Calhoun changed her vote to Brothers. Dallas then, changed to Robbins, Shelby changed to Smith, Calhoun changed to Wood, Dallas changed to Wood and Shelby to Brothers. All during the ballot the floor presented a stormy scene. One time a fight seemed imminent. Pettus of Dallas wanted Talladega to change her vote to Robbins, when Dallas did and used as an argument in a point of order to that effect that Talladega had been instructed for Robbins. Cecil Browne of Talladega, replied that the man who said Talladega was instructed for Robbins told a lie. Pettus started toward Browne but everybody gathered around them, friends interfered and the threatened collision was averted.

After a considerable time quiet was restored and the result of the ballot announced.

It was as follows:

Calhoun, 11 for Wood; Chilton, 5 for Wood; Cleburne, 4 for Brothers; Dallas, 16 for Wood; Shelby, 7 for Brothers; Talladega, 10 for Brothers. Total: Wood 32; Brothers 21.

Mardis L. Wood had been nominated and Chairman Mooreing so declared.

Messrs. Wood, Brothers, Smith and Robbins were then called on and each responded with able and eloquent efforts which were well received.

After selecting congressional executive committee the convention adjourned at 4:20 sine die.

The committee selected are:

T. W. Ayers and D. D. McLeod, of Calhoun, Tipton, Mullins and T. U. Crumpton, of Chilton; T. J. Burton and Amos Howle, of Cleburne; F. L. Pettus and V. B. Atkins, of Dallas; H. E. Reynolds and J. E. Rufus, of Shelby; R. Heine and W. B. Castlebury, of Talladega.

The Democrats and Republicans have each nominated a candidate for Congress in the Fourth District.

The People's party convention is called to meet at Calera next Wednesday. It is probable that Hon. A. P. Longshore will be nominated by that convention.

The people of Calhoun county are rapidly learning that they must now read the REPUBLICAN if they keep up with the news.

Young men who want to attend a medical college, should notice advertisement of the Alabama Medical College in this issue.

We are gratified to know that Miss Ida Arnold has been elected to a nice place in one of the public schools in Birmingham.

Jeff Ferguson and Henry Jones went out hunting in dark corner a few days ago and caught five coons. They claim that it was not much of a day for coons, either.

Mr. Temp Hill and Miss Williamson were married at Nesbitt's mill last Sunday. This was a marriage without the consent of the parents of the bride.

Capt. W. H. McKleroy and Mr. Caffery were up from Anniston last Wednesday. Capt. McKleroy is very much beloved here by the members of the Woodstock Guards. He is also held in high esteem by all of our people.

Miss Griswold, the teacher of voice culture at Shorter college, who has spent the summer here with her friend Miss Undine Lane, left to-day for Rome. No young lady ever made more friends in Jacksonville than has Miss Griswold, and we all regretted to see her go away.

The recital given here last Thursday night by Miss Helen E. Brown of Kentucky, was a rare treat to all who heard it. As an elocutionist, she has few equals in this country. She was assisted in the entertainment by Miss Undine Lane, who charmed the audience with her magnificent and trained voice in two songs which she sang.

Death of Mrs. Anderson.

Mrs. Rose Anderson, daughter of commissioner Green B. Skelton, after a long illness from consumption, breathed her last on Wednesday morning, September 5, 1894, at the home of her father, four miles south of Jacksonville.

Mrs. Anderson was a most excellent Christian woman and her death is mourned by a large circle of friends and relatives.

ANNISTON.

Hon. John M. McKleroy is dead! On the night of August 30th, his spirit took its flight to the God who gave it.

As a citizen, he occupied an exalted position in the hearts of his fellow countrymen; as a husband and father, he was faithful, kind, and affectionate; as a patriot, he placed love of country far above all things else; as a gentleman and scholar, he was universally admired.

Anniston, Calhoun county, and all Alabama mourn over his death.

Well, the congressional convention has come and gone. Many people were present to witness the proceedings, which were "wild and woolly" and full of fun and devilment. Of all conventions recently held in this part of the moral vineyard, it was the most ungovernable and ridiculous, both on the part of delegates and spectators.

As every body knows are these, Mardie L. Wood of Dallas county, was successful in securing the nomination. He is said to be an able and competent young man, and will no doubt lead the banner to the usual Democratic victory.

As is usual just after a convention, there are many who are sore over the defeat of personal friends; but all this will pass away as the date of the election approaches, and all good Democrats will rally to the support of the party's nominee.

Mr. Wood stands with Hon. John T. Morgan on the questions that now confront the people, and it is predicted that he will be elected by eight thousand majority.

Greer, Stevens, Longshore and other Jeff-Pop-Pop held a meeting at the City Hall on Tuesday; but, up to this writing, your correspondent has not been able to ascertain the result of their deliberations. It is supposed, however, that the delegates selected were instructed to vote for Longshore for congress.

Our city public schools, after a vacation of three months, opened on last Monday, with an attendance of four hundred pupils. If we had the buildings and teachers, the enrollment would not be less than one thousand. The defeat of the Hulley Amendment, has deferred the further development of our public school system indefinitely.

Arrangements have been made to reopen the Parker House at early date. It will be renovated and refurbished, and when this is done will be one of the best hotels in the state.

Ullman Bros. have rearranged their store, making it much more convenient and attractive, and now have one of the nobbiest and most attractive business houses in this part of Alabama.

The Model City is fortunate in securing the citizenship of Mr. Frank Nelson, Jr., of Bibb county. He has purchased a residence on Tyler Hill, and will move into it at an early date.

The city council at its last meeting passed an ordinance providing that the payment of the salaries of city officers be postponed until Jan. 1st, 1895. Verily, the pathway of the municipal birelief is thorny and full of trouble!

Miss Mattie Humphries has gone on a month's visit to relatives in Texas.

Mr. Ullman has gone to New York to purchase goods.

Mr. P. B. Brown has returned from a visit Livingston and Birmingham.

Capt. R. W. Allen is back from Atlanta, Washington, Philadelphia and New York.

Messrs. Kelly, Cartel, Blackwell, and Johnston have been attending court at Edwardsville.

Mr. B. F. Collins has sold his Tenth street business, and is now with Henry Robinson, the jeweler, on Noble street.

The mule that pulls the Grasmer milk wagon ran away Sunday morning, and Will Harrison, the driver, was considerably injured.

Capt. J. E. Green, father of Judge J. P. Green, was married on 9th to Mrs. Mattie A. Castillo of Columbus, Ga.

Mr. W. A. Darden has returned from the Northwest, where he went to buy horses.

Mr. L. F. Culver, of Bullock county, visited his son, Rev. F. P. Culver, this week. The Maj. is the newly elected Senator from his district.

Mr. W. O. Canfield and Miss Jersey Ramsey were married on last Saturday night by Rev. W. H. Morris.

Anniston's most noted female college, the Southern Female University and Conservatory of Music and Art, opened on the 6th with a large number of pupils.

Mrs. A. H. Smith is visiting relatives in Albany, Texas.

Miss Christine Cook, one of our most charming young ladies, has returned from a lengthy visit to Livingston and other places.

Miss Mary Agee, sister of solicitor Agee, after spending the summer at her old home in Monroe county, has resumed her duties as teacher in the city schools.

WEAVERS.

Mr. and Mrs. Coke Williams of White Plains, have been visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. J. M. Le-Grand.

A small party went over to Sulphur Springs last Friday, and spent a most delightful day. Mrs. Clark Snow, Misses Ruth and Maxie Snow and Miss Lillian Stewart of Oxford, were with the party.

Mr. Jno. P. Weaver has just completed a large and commodious barn, on his father's old homestead. He has also planted out an orchard of pecans, about three hundred trees, which are growing nicely.

Cotton picking has commenced, and the movement of the sleepy staple will make things lively around here. The crop is thought to be a fair one, although some rust is noticed on it.

Mr. J. L. Ledbetter is on a business trip to Piedmont.

Mr. J. R. McElrath had a relapse on the night of the 3rd inst. but is now better.

The services of the Christian church closed last Sunday night.

The result of this meeting was several additions to the church.

A revival is now in progress at the Methodist church, conducted by the pastor Rev. W. O. Horton, assisted by Rev. Howell of Oak Level, and Rev. Webster of Dukes.

Mrs. P. M. Watson and daughter Miss Lula, spent Tuesday in Jacksonville, with the formers brother, Mr. J. P. Weaver.

JENKINS.

Fodder pulling is the order of the day now. Farmers all seem to be in high spirits about their crops.

Prof. Abbott was elected as principal of Rabbit Town high school for another year. He has given general satisfaction the present session.

Our merchants are in good spirits and expect a good trade this fall.

One or two of the lads in this vicinity will go to white Plains to school this fall.

Many of Mrs. G. H. Eddy's friends will be glad to hear she is well pleased with her home in S. C. with Mr. Eddy's father.

Drummers are plentiful in our town. Our old friend Mr. F. A. Weems was at Jenkins with his band of shoe samples (his a. m.

We all think there is a great improvement in the REPUBLICAN. We wish it success and a wide circulation.

PIEDMONT.

Rev. J. B. Andrews, the stirring Evangelist, who held such a good meeting here in the spring, will be here again on the third Sunday in this month, and will remain a week.

Preparations are being made for building a bush arbor to accommodate the crowds.

It will be a union meeting and great good is expected to follow.

Rev. Dr. Darnell, of Centre, delivered two excellent discourses on Sunday last at the Methodist church.

He spoke again on Monday morning to an appreciative audience, at the Cumberland Presbyterian church in his interest of the Seminary and education in general.

The Seminary opened on Monday with a fair attendance, and promises a most brilliant year.

Mr. Little has moved into the house vacated by Mrs. Faust. Mrs. Little will continue to have charge of the Art department at the Seminary.

Arthur Moody returned to Birmingham on Sunday last, after a week's rest and recreation with the loved ones at home.

Miss Minnie Henderson, a charming young lady of Atlanta, is visiting Miss Mary Lou Moody on Linda street.

T. Math Alexander has accepted a position with the Anniston Evening News, and we see his smiling face no more.

It is whispered that before another moon shall wax and wane, weddng bells will ring in Piedmont for one of our fairest, dearest and best girls.

It is also said that our loss will be Hartsville's gain.

Mrs. R. R. Harbin of Atlanta, who has been spending the summer at her father's, Col. Alexander, returned to her home on Saturday last.

Our former townsmen, Mr. W. P. Cooper, spent this week among us, getting his gin in order for the unusually fine crop of cotton, which is opening rapidly.

Clark & Howell have moved their saw mill from Coldwater to the pine timber belonging to the Gladden estate near here. Capacity of mill 10,000 feet of lumber and 20,000 shingles per day.

Prof. Persons has been confined to his room for the past week.

Whooping cough has made its appearance among the children of our town, greatly to the dismay of the older people.

Miss Dora Crook is spending the week in Anniston, the guest of her brother, Mr. S. W. Crook Jr.

There was quite a sad burial on Sunday afternoon of a Miss Stovall. Madé doubly so from the fact that all her family are sick with fever, and the hands of strangers committed her body to the tomb. One brother languishes in prison charged with murder.

There has been a number of fever cases in our town, confined, almost entirely, to the operatives in the cotton factory.

There was an alarm of fire on Monday morning, but fortunately it was controlled before much damage was done. The kitchen roof of E. D. McClelen caught from sparks from the stove pipe falling on the shingles. Not a defective flue this time.

TAMPA.

Dr. Ragan, of Alexandria, was in Tampa Thursday of last week, on professional business.

Miss Irene Sheppard and brother, of Anniston,—Mr. and Mrs. Sam McClelen, of Oxford,—and Mr. and Mrs. Tarvin, of Obatchie, visited Mr. Pearce's family Sunday.

Col. C. P. Ball, with a party of friends, made a short stop here Sunday to admire the scenery and especially the growing cotton which was a novelty to some of them.

The "Taffy pulling" given by the Misses Montgomery, at Sulphur Springs, on evening of 29th was very much enjoyed by all present.

Mr. Jno. E. Pearce left Wednesday for his home in Florida. His family will remain a few weeks longer.

DEARMINVILLE.

It is highly probable that a new Baptist church will be organized in this place within the next few weeks. This is a good field for new work and will not detract from any other church.

Cotton is opening in some places, and the noise of the gins will soon be heard separating the sleepy staple from the seed.

Many farmers are now pulling their fodder and if the weather continues favorable a large quantity will be saved. The corn crop is very good.

The death of Col. McKleroy is regretted very much in this part of the county.

A young gent hereabout is in a considerable dilemma. He asked his best girl to marry him, and she very readily answered yes; but when he consulted her man about the matter he struck a snag. The old lady kicked like she was left laundred in both hind feet, and said that her daughter's name should not be changed; he might have her

The work of making sorghum will begin next week. The crop is fine this season and with the present process of making it is making most excellent syrup.

The third party people here will not vote for Aldrich.

BEAT 14.

Things are lovely in this beat and the farmers are saving folder in earnest.

Mr. Samuel Paul commenced the erection of a new residence, yesterday at the old Tinley place.

Our people continue to talk politics.

Mr. James Hudson died in this beat last Saturday evening at 5 o'clock.

Work has been resumed at Lock 4. They say by the last of this week they will be working 150 hands.

ALEXANDRIA.

A team of small boys from Jacksonville played a game of ball with the Alexandria boys on the 1st. Jacksonville was defeated.

Mr. Powers returned yesterday from Birmingham where he has arranged to ship large quantities of his famous watermelons.

We had the notoriety of having a small wreck here yesterday. As a special freight train approached the station it collided with a cow belonging to Mr. Jno. T. Pearce, causing a car or two to be thrown from the track and partially wrecking them. Trains passed this point by means of the track until the main line was cleared.

ANNISTON, ALABAMA

CHAPTER I.

Francis Marion had ill suited to his somber attire and unctuous speech. He was well warned by that first glimpse of the inn. The monstrous bulk of gables, sloping roofs and lean chimneys hunched blackly against the sky would have scared a bolder spirit than mine. All day I had walked under blue sky, between green hedgerows, with light heart and whistling lip. Confronted in the twilight by so somber a scene, I felt qualmish. Ragged clouds dropped their fringes over sullen western red, around spread the salt marshes, evil in their desolation, and I, with chilled blood, stared at the lonely mansion dominating the outlook. Here, though I, an adventurist awaits me. The hour, the house, the scene, lurid at romance, and that of the strangest.

So much were my spirits dashed by these ominous environments that it was in my mind to walk the further 10 miles and shelter for the night at Marshminster. Yet somehow I could my unwilling feet toward that hideous door, and almost before I knew my own mind I was knocking loudly. It opened while my hand was still for the final rap, and a hand, and a hand presented herself to

I know not. "I am sorry to trouble you, sir," she said, "but I am a widow, and I have just had a birth, and I am very ill. Could you not stay with me?" At the same time she was very comely. Not a lady, a servant, but something between the two. Her appearance confirmed the gloom of the forecast.

"I have walked from Briarfield, and I am in hand," I said, "so I am here for the night."

"Marshminster is only to the west away," answered the maid, "so I will go to bed and sleep there."

"And for that reason I will stay here. Twenty and six miles to bed and under a roof can be a hard day's work."

"I am sorry we can't accommodate you, sir."

"This is the last, I fear, of my time in the world."

"The first, sir, of the world, and I am sorry to have to tell you this."

"Full of gloom, as you say, but I must have some comfort, and I have been so comforted here for 12 days."

"She made no more speech, and I left and prepared to walk to Briarfield by the highway. I had no time to do so, for the landlord had come to my attention and was about to close the window. I ran outside to a college friend, and waited for him to greet me.

"Hello, Briarfield," I called him. "Come and help me to get away."

The girl was surprised to see me, and, as I thought, did not like me. She stepped aside to let Briarfield pass, exhibited further evidence of the strangeness of our meeting.

"What wind blows you here, then?" asked Briarfield, smiling my hand.

"I am on a walking tour," I answered, "and I have to have a place to sleep, and I stepped aside to let Briarfield pass, exhibited further evidence of the strangeness of our meeting.

"You can't expect a sufficient number to fill the house," he retorted. "Surely Mr. Denham can have a bed?"

"I shall ask my father, sir."

When she disappeared, Briarfield turned to me with a smile and asked a strange question.

"Now, I'll be bound," said he, "that you don't know my first name!"

"Felix."

"No! You are wrong. I am not the rich Felix, but the poor Francis."

"You see the result of being one of twins," said I impatiently. "If at college I could not distinguish between you, how can you expect me to do so now? I haven't seen either you or your brother for at least two years. Where is Felix?"

"At Marshminster."

"And what are you doing here?"

"Ah, that's a long story! If you——"

"Please to walk in, sir," interrupted Rose at this moment. "My father does not speak with you."

"I have, then, to submit myself to the approval of the landlord," said I and forthwith entered the house, followed by Francis Briarfield.

The landlord, a lean, saturnine man above the common height, saluted me with a sour smile. In appearance and demeanor he was quite in keeping with that dream man. About him lurked a of Felix to this place. "I must find out from Francis the reason of that visit, and it may throw some light on the demeanor of Rose. I am glad I can see her tonight, for the landlord is scarce a person to be trusted. Certainly my presentiment of romance is coming true."

When I descended to the dining room, I found supper laid and Francis impatiently awaiting my arrival. A lamp was lighted, and for the first time I saw his face plainly. The alteration in his looks and demeanor since our college days was astonishing. Felix had always been the grave of the twins, and it was the distinguishing mark between them. Now the livelier spirits of Francis had calmed down to a subdued gravity which made the resemblance between them still greater. We seated ourselves at the table in silence, and he colored as he caught my earnest look.

"Can I find you supper and a bed, sir?" said he, bending his body and rubbing his hands, "neither, I regret to say, of the first quality."

"Never mind," I answered, unstrapping my knapsack. "I am too tired and hungry to be particular."

"We have only lately taken up this house, sir," he continued, still bowing, "and things are a trifle disordered."

I glanced around. Despite the cheerless state of the fire, the room had a milder glow, a longer length.

"Traces of hasty cleaning were visible in all corners, and in the dark, visible in through dirty panes, a light filtered singularly faintly. An apartment had just passed, and again over me, a sense of indistinct came

"We are to our view, Deham, but I hope our mutes are different."

"What do you mean?"

"Felix," said he with marked definition, "is a thief, a liar and a dishonest man."

"You speak strongly."

"I have reason to."

"The last-mentioned reason, Briarfield," said I, alluding to the feminine element.

"Yes. By the way," he added feverishly, "you know Miss Bellin was known to me."

"In a case very only. She is a widow, and I have met her once or twice, also her very silly mother. The latter is as remarkable for folly as the former for beauty. Well, Briarfield, what is it?"

"What is it?" asked Briarfield, starting up.

"You are welcome to tell me."

ESTABLISHED 1837.

JACKSONVILLE, CALHOUN COUNTY, ALA., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1894.

VOLUME 23

The State campaign is progressing quietly in Georgia. Col. Alkinson and Judge Hines are banding together for a joint discussion, but as yet have not met.

Col. Jim Gardner tells of a Kolbite friend of his down on Choctawhatchee creek, whose wife recently gave birth to twins, both boys, and the forensaid Kolbites named one "Free Ballot" and the other "Fair Count." —Hot Blast.

The citizens of Calhoun county owe less money than they have ever owed for several years. This year in addition to the cotton crop, they will have a surplus of corn to sell, and we expect to see them able to pay their debts this winter and have money left.

Dr. T. W. Ayers, the new editor and proprietor of the JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN, is making it an exceedingly interesting local paper. Heretofore local news was what the REPUBLICAN largely lacked.—Columbus Daily Enquirer Sun.

The way for us to secure the free and unlimited coinage of silver in this country, is to support only men for Congress and the United States Senate who will vote in favor of it. Sound your candidate on this question before casting your ballot for him.

THE Oxford Enterprise has been sold by Mr. A. D. Starnes to Mr. J. M. Armstrong. The new editor in his salutary says that he will stand firmly on the Chicago platform, and will insist on the party fulfilling all the pledges made as quickly as possible. This is safe ground for a Democrat to stand upon. The future of the Democratic party demands that those in authority carry out every pledge made in convention at Chicago.

From a statement prepared by the deputy appraiser of the port of New York it is shown that the adoption of the new tariff bill will save the people of this country on woolen goods more than $111,000,000 annually. Think of it! On the item of woolen goods alone, a saving of one hundred and forty-one million dollars. Then there can be added to this hundreds of other items on which great savings are made to the people as compared with the McKinley bill.

THE Democratic party should select only such men to represent it in the national congress as will vote to carry out every promise made by the people in the Chicago platform. While the last congress failed to keep all the pledges made in that platform, this is no reason why the next congress should not fulfill them. Redeme the pledges made, and we will have no trouble to elect a Democratic President in 1896. Fail to redeem them, and the Democratic party will fail to control the three branches of the Government.

AFTER balloting for five days and nights the congressional convention in the Sixth District adjourned last Saturday without making a nomination. It decided to refer the matter back to the people to be decided by a primary to be held Sept. 22. After this decision was reached, Colonel Foster and Mr. Chapman withdrew from the race, and now the contest lies between Hon. J. H. Bankhead and Hon. T. L. Long. It is generally believed that the primary will result in the nomination of Congressman Bankhead.

CAPTAIN JOS. F. JOHNSTON lived a number of years in Selma. He well knows what manner of man is Mardis L. Wood; and after Mr. Wood's nomination, Captain Johnston telegraphed him as follows: "Accept my congratulations, and command my services to make it unanimous in November." Captain Johnston knows that the Democratic party of Alabama owes Mardis Wood a great debt of gratitude, and he for one is willing to come and aid in paying this debt by making a canvass of the District.

Local & Personal.

We had a pleasant call last Wednesday from editor Wicks of Piedmont.

Read the advertisement of John Ramagiano in this issue and see what he has to say.

Mrs. LeGrand and Arberry, of Anniston, were visitors to Jacksonville Monday.

Mrs. Julia Pinion, an inmate of the pauper's home, died last Monday with heart disease.

Mrs. Ball of Cartersville, and Mrs. Stratford of Montgomery, are stopping at the Iron Queen.

The boys around town will please not gather in the REPUBLICAN office and hinder the printer boys during work hours.

Capt. Cobb will have charge of Dr. Walker's gin at the oil mill, and will run it so as to give satisfaction to all the patrons.

Bishop Jackson preached able sermons at the Episcopal church last Sunday morning and night. At night he confirmed a class of four.

See notice of farm for sale which appears in this issue. It is offered at a much less price than lands usually sell for in Choctawhatchee valley.

Misses Marie and Martha Duplessis of Mobile, are in Jacksonville and will remain until the middle of October, to the delight of their friends here.

Miss Minnie Henderson of Atlanta, and Miss Mary Lee Moody of Piedmont, and Mr. Morse of Atlanta, were here visiting Miss Crow last Monday.

Prof. J. D. Wright, after spending his summer vacation at Clayton, and Columbus, Ga., has returned to resume his place as a teacher in the State Normal School.

Rev. Mr. Leslie has returned from his visit to North Carolina, and will fill the pulpit in the Methodist church here next Sunday. He enjoyed his trip and is now ready for the home work.

Col. Ball of the East and West, spent Monday in Jacksonville. He has shown Jacksonville all the favors possible in the management of his road, and our people appreciate his efforts and hold him in the very highest esteem.

The county commissioners while in session here last week completed their work on the tax book. They meet again in October, when they will select a keeper of the pauper's home for another year, and transact other necessary business.

Dr. A. J. Battle, President of Shorter College, was in Jacksonville last Tuesday in the interest of his school. The Shorter is one of the best female colleges in this section, and parents will make no mistake in sending their daughters there to be educated.

We direct special attention to the advertisement of Crow Brothers in this issue. They are now receiving a large stock of fall goods and are offering them cheap. No more honorable or accommodating gentlemen can be found in the world than these gentlemen, and they are determined to sell goods as cheap this year as they can be bought anywhere. Go and see them and get their prices.

Change in Alexandria Road.

An arrangement is being made to change the road from Jacksonville to Alexandria so as to shorten the distance from here to that valley, and at the same time to improve the road. This is a move in the right direction. Let us continue in this good work by making a good road from here to White Plains.

There is no doubt but this is the way to improve the commercial business of Jacksonville.

Disconsolate Girls.

The girls who think their curled bangs are so pretty are now disconsolate. Bangs have gone out of style and will not be worn this fall.

Service at Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Mr. Bryan of Birmingham has been assisting Rev. E. T. Linton in a meeting at the Presbyterian church this week. Mr. Bryan is a most thoroughly consecrated minister, and we hear has done a good work in his field in Birmingham.

Gone to Texas.

B. J. Matthews and family left last Thursday for Honey Grove, Fannin county, Texas, where they will reside in the future. We regret to give up this family to the Lone Star State, but hope they will find prosperity and happiness in their new home. They can always look back to old Jacksonville and feel assured that they have left many friends who will ever be glad to learn of their successes in the far west.

Gone to Dadeville.

Miss Mattie Whortor left a few days ago for Dadeville, where she resumes her place as a teacher in the school there. She taught there last year and gave such satisfaction that she was unanimously elected again for the present term. She is a graduate of the Normal School here, and wherever the graduates of this school go, they rank among the very best teachers. A number of those who have graduated here for the past few years now have places which pay them splendid salaries. It is also true that the graduates of this school are always in demand, and it is an exception that one of them has any trouble in securing a good position.

Place For The Chautauqua.

We wish to call the attention of Rev. S. P. West and others who are interested in the management of the Alabama Chautauqua to the fact that there is no better place in Alabama for holding the chautauqua than at Schenck's Sulphur Springs.

These springs afford as fine sulphur water as can be found at any springs in the South, and are rapidly becoming a popular resort. They are located on the East and West railroad seven miles from Jacksonville.

They are already popular as a resort with the people of Jacksonville, Anniston, Oxford, Piedmont and Cedar town.

Not only could the Chautauqua draw largely from the towns mentioned if held at Sulphur Springs, but it would be in a few hours ride of Birmingham, Talladega, Gadsden and Cartersville, and would no doubt draw largely from all these places.

Of all the places in the State, Sulphur Springs is the place to make a success of the Alabama Chautauqua.

Miss Haley's Resignation.

The patrons of the Jacksonville State Normal School were pained a few days since to learn that Miss Bessie Maude Haley had tendered her resignation as a teacher in the school here. They had hoped that she would again be one of our teachers. She had been a teacher here for five years, and during this time she had endeared herself to the patrons and pupils of the school as few teachers could possibly have done.

A more faithful teacher never taught in any school. Not only faithful, but she is a thoroughly competent teacher. Being a graduate of the Nashville Normal School, and the experience which she has had since then as a teacher, made her a very valuable addition to the school here as a teacher of pedagogy.

Not only has Miss Haley been appreciated in Jacksonville as a teacher, but her noble, symmetrical, Christian character has made her a valuable addition to our social and church circles.

She carries with her the love and best wishes of all our people.

She left last Tuesday for Jasper, Ala., where she will teach the present year, and where she will receive a larger salary than was paid her here.

Two Hustlers.

Mess. Ullman and Ansley, two of Anniston's most enterprising business men, were more talking up their business with the good people of Jacksonville last Monday. They both have a fine trade in this portion of the county, and as they are most excellent gentlemen, they deserve all they get.

One of the Old Guard.

Captain Ross belongs to the old guard as a school teacher. Quite a number of those who went to school to him, when he taught several years ago now have children to send to him. But we are not after creating the impression that the Captain is a very old man; but to say that those who have gone to school to him appreciate him as a teacher, and he now has the offer of five schools.

Opening of Normal School.

Next Tuesday is the day for the opening of the Normal school here. Let all who feel an interest in this school manifest their interest by attending the opening. Let us turn over a new leaf; let us go to work with a determination to build up this school so as that it will have an attendance of four or five hundred pupils. This is not an unreasonable proposition. We can reach this number if we will all come together and make the proper effort.

Control the Railroads.

The various United States courts over the country soon to be applying the Interstate Railway Commission pretty generally lately in the laws that have been enacted to hold the commission together with powers to manipulate the roads.

The final culmination of the all absorbing long and short haul case that hung fire for so long a time before the courts has done more than any other one thing, it would seem, towards upholding the Interstate Commission. The recent sitting of the circuit court of appeals in New Orleans decided this question, involved in the famous Social Circle case, in favor of the commission.

The long and short haul clause of the law holding the Interstate Commission in force was forcefully brought out in the case of shipments to Social Circle.

This well known town is on the Georgia railroad and the question at issue was whether it was entitled to rates from Cincinnati as low as those in force from that point to the more distant city of Augusta.

The roads refused to comply, alleging "dissimilarity in circumstances and conditions." The judge, Hon. William Newman, of Atlanta, in deciding the Social Circle case, held that a distinction between carriers subject and not subject to the act was unsound, and sustained every position taken by counsel for the roads.

The commission took an appeal, as stated, and Judge Newman's decision was reversed with instructions to enforce the order of the commission. As Judge Newman's decision was based upon the famous "line" decision of Justice Brewer, acting as presiding judge of the circuit court of appeals at St. Paul a year or two ago, the effect of the New Orleans decision is particularly interesting and important.

The result of this decision will be to compel the railway companies seeking to make lower rates for long distances by reason of railway competition to apply to and secure permission from the commissions.—Atlanta Constitution.

The above is certainly a just decision. For surely there can be no justice in shipping goods from the flour mills of Tennessee right through the town of Jacksonville to Anniston and Selma and charging Jacksonville twice the freight rate charged the two places where a longer haul is required.

Jacksonville has submitted to such a discrimination for a long time, but it is now believed that it will soon be corrected.

SPEAKER CRISP.

IN FAVOR OF THE FREE COINAGE OF SILVER NOW.

He thinks the New Tariff Bill the Best Proposed Since the War.

Hon. Charles P. Crisp.

He has been in position since he has been Speaker of the House to as thoroughly inform himself upon all important questions as any man in this country.

Couple the fact that he has had the very best opportunities to learn the needs of this country, with the fact he is a gentleman of splendid intellect and fine business qualifications, entitles his opinions to as much weight as any other public man now before the people.

In a recent speech in Atlanta he declared that he favored the free coinage of silver now, and believed that it would afford great relief to the people. He said he believed the fears of those who oppose the free and unlimited coinage of silver was largely imaginary. The result of the vote on the free coinage of silver was to him personally a great disappointment. He laid down the battle cry when he declared that the silver question is not settled.

In discussing the manner in which silver is treated at the United States Treasury Speaker Crisp said:

"A law and practice which allows a citizen to pay his obligations to the government in silver, and at the same time permits him to demand of the government gold in redemption of its obligation, is manifestly unreasonable and unjust, and in the nature of the case must impair confidence and tend to pro-voke panic."

In discussing the new tariff bill and the repeal of the ten per cent on State banks, Speaker Crisp says:

"This bill is not all we hope for. It contains provisions we deplore—provisions which the house by separate bill immediately repealed—and yet, taken as a whole, it goes further in the direction of relief to a tax-ridden people than any bill that has been considered in any congress since the war. Its reduction of rates are greater than those proposed in either of the Morrison bills or the Mills bill. It places wool, copper, tin, lumber, salt, blinding twine, bags, and bagging, agricultural implements and many other articles on the free list. In nearly every schedule there are large reductions. In the iron, steel and woolen schedules there are many reductions exceeding 75 per cent. On the basis of the importations of 1892-93 on woolen manufacturers alone there is a reduction to the consumer of more than $163,000,000. On cotton, on felts, on common velvets and on hundreds of other articles the reduction is greater than 50 per cent. The bill places a tax on sugar. A large majority of the democrats in the house opposed this, and as the bill passed the house sugar in all its forms was made free. The cane-grower got no aid from the government; the sugar trust got no aid from the government. The bill as it became a law places an ad valorem of 10 per cent on sugar, leaves the sugar revenue a little more than one-half of what he got under the McKinley law, and repeals the bounty of 2 cents a pound. This provision will pay $10,000,000 into the treasury, and save the $12,000,000 we paid last year as bounty. The bill contains a provision imposing a tax of 2 per cent on all incomes in excess of $4000.

"I have thus outlined merely the provisions of this great reform measure. It strikes at trusts and monopolies. It reduces the cost of the necessities of life. It to some extent opens our markets at home and abroad."

ENLARGES OUR MARKET ABROAD.

It promotes agriculture, it encourages manufacturing, and it will add to the comforts of millions of our fellow citizens. We voted upon a proposition to repeal the tax upon the circulation of state bank currency.

DR. T. W. AYERS is the purchaser of the JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN. He has had experience in the newspaper business and we predict that he will use his pen in a way to make the REPUBLICAN a great power for good in the State.

It means much for Jacksonville, and we must have it.

DR. T. W. AYERS is the purchaser of the JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN. He has had experience in the newspaper business and we predict that he will use his pen in a way to make the REPUBLICAN a great power for good in the State.

THE many nice things which are being said about the REPUBLICAN by both press and people is highly appreciated. One of the leading newspaper men of the State pays it a splendid compliment when he writes that it is nearer his ideal of a local paper than any paper in the State.

THERE is no probability of Senator Morgan having Democratic opposition before the next Legislature, and why the Montgomery Advertiser continues to try and pick a quarrel with him is more than we can understand. There is no doubt but that General Morgan is loved more by the people of Alabama than any other man in the State.

OUR friend Captain Donahoo of Talladega, was eager to send the first news of the Anniston convention to Talladega, and the frequent changes in the vote caused him to get his telegrams mixed, and the papers now get off the following on him:

Capt. John Donahoo of Talladega, figured in a rather amusing incident at the convention held in Anniston. Before the result of the first ballot was announced Capt. Donahoo, thoroughly convinced of Mr. Wood's nomination, telegraphed his partner at Talladega as follows: "Wood nominated on the first ballot." When he returned to the hall he found things were considerably changed and Mr. Brothers, to all appearances, was to be nominated. Capt. Donahoo rushed back to the telegraph office and wired his partner the second time, thusly: "Brothers nominated on the second ballot." Returning to the convention he found that no nomination had been made and the convention adjourned until 2 o'clock, whereupon he wired his partner: "No nomination yet; convention adjourned until 2 p. m." His mystified partner wired back from Talladega: "Donahoo, are you drunk or crazy?" To this telegram the Captain replied: "I be d— if I know which."

A Needed Road.

Probably no where in Calhoun county is a good road so much needed as from Jacksonville to White Plains.

The people in Choctawhatchee valley have much business in Jacksonville, and it is a very great hardship to force them to climb such a mountain as is now necessary, when a splendid, level road can be built for not a very large amount of money.

Several years ago a road from Jacksonville to White Plains was surveyed through Pruitt's Gap, and it was found that a splendid road could be secured with not a heavy grade on it. A road which would be the equal of almost any in the county.

While this road would prove a great convenience to the people across the mountain, it would also be worth much to Jacksonville. It would bring here annually thousands of dollars worth of trade which now goes elsewhere.

There is no better trade in Calhoun county than in Choctawhatchee valley, and Jacksonville must secure more of this trade by building this road.

The good times are coming, and we cannot afford to stand idly by in Jacksonville and let others outstrip us.

We must throw aside our lethargy and go to work.

We must get and move on us, and let one of the first things we do be to build this new road.

The Republican.

By J. W. AYERS.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1894.

For Congress, Fourth District
HON. MARDIS L. WOOD
Of Dallas.

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE.

Hon. Mardis L. Wood, the Democratic nominee for congress in the Fourth District, spent last Wednesday in Jacksonville.

Nearly all our people had the pleasure of meeting him, and were pleased with him as the standard bearer of the Democratic party in this District. He will not only receive the votes of all Democrats here, but our people will give him an enthusiastic support.

While Mr. Wood was here, the editor of the REPUBLICAN had the pleasure of hearing him discuss the important issues now before the people; and we find him fully in accord with the great majority of the white men of this District.

He is in favor of a tariff for revenue only.

He favors the repeal of the prohibitory ten per cent tax on State banks.

He favors a graduated tax on incomes.

He favors the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

Mr. Wood is a warm personal and political friend of Senator Morgan and Capt. Jos. F. Johnston, and for years has stood shoulder to shoulder with these two distinguished gentlemen on the question of finance, and when he goes to congress the people can confidently rely upon him to do all in his power to restore silver to its constitutional place as a money metal of this country.

As Speaker Crisp said in his Atlanta speech, the fight for silver has not ended. Indeed, it has only commenced. The interests of this country demand the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver, and the people propose to keep up this fight until this demand is enacted into a law.

While the silver fight is in progress, the Fourth District will be fortunate in having a man to represent it who is able, aggressive, and who is from principle a strong silver man.

THEY WILL NOT DO IT.

We hear the question frequently asked, "will the Jeffersonians support the Republican nominee for congress?"

We invariably answer this question by saying that a few of them may, but a very large majority of them will not.

As the editor of this paper said in calling the congressional convention to order in Anniston, many of the Jeffersonians are as true men as ever breathed the breath of life; men who have fought the battles of their country; men who for years fought the battles of the Democratic party; and who recently have been out of the organization of the party because they honestly believed that a needed relief to a suffering people could be secured sooner in another direction.

They are fighting for what they believe to be principles.

They believe that it is to the interest of this country to at once restore silver to its constitutional position as a money metal by giving it a free and unlimited coinage.

They are in favor of a low tariff.

They are in favor of the income tax.

These are the most important measures for which they are now fighting that will come before our national law makers.

These are all good, Democratic measures.

They are measures to which the Republican party is uncompromisingly opposed.

The Jeffersonians are earnest in their advocacy of these measures, and it is preposterous to believe that they will suffer themselves led by a set of designing politicians to cast their ballots for a man who belongs to a party which has never failed to cast a practically solid vote against these measures.

The Republican party is uncompromisingly opposed to the free coinage of silver; to a low tariff; to a tax on incomes; and no matter what trade may have been entered into between the leaders of the Republican party and the leaders of the Third party, the Jeffersonians who are honestly fighting for principles, and whose motives are to better the condition of their country, will not sacrifice themselves by being induced to support the Republican candidate for congress. As is well known in Calhoun county, the editor of the REPUBLICAN has always taken the position that the great majority of the Jeffersonians in this county were honest in their convictions and that they were doing what they believed to be best.

We still have this confidence in them, and have no fear that they will support a man for congress who belongs to a party which opposes all national legislation which they favor.

The Peoples party convention at Calera last Wednesday declined to nominate a candidate for congress; but passed a resolution recommending that the populists of the district support W. F. Aldrich.

We are glad that we are to have a straight fight with the old enemy. The white men of this country have met Republicanism before; they have not forgotten the dark days of reconstruction; of negro supremacy; of oppression; of abuse of the Southern people; and we have no fear but that the men who all along have asserted that they were good Democrats will fall in line against our old enemy when the toxin is sounded.

He favors a graduated tax on incomes.

He favors the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

A Quarter Century Test.

For a quarter of a century Dr. King's New Discovery has been tested, and the millions who have received benefit from its use testify to its wonder. The Cough and Lungs' Remedy that has stood, the test so long and that has given so universal satisfaction is no experiment. Each bottle is positively guaranteed to give relief or the money will be refunded. It is admitted to be the most reliable for Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles free at the drug stores. Large size $2.50 and $1.00.

In the great contest which is to be fought between now and the next presidential election for THE PEOPLE'S MONEY—The Coinage of both Gold and Silver, without discrimination, which means the free coinage of both as opposed to the policy of contraction, which is being dictated by England, and which levies tribute on every product of the farm, on valuations of all kinds and on all compensation for labor.

The Great Issue now is the double standard against the single standard—the use of both gold and silver as standard money metals, against the organized effort to hold the currency of the country strictly to the gold basis.

THE ATLANTA CIRCULATION, 156,000. WEEKLY CONSTITUTION

published at ATLANTA, GA., and having

A CIRCULATION OF MORE THAN 156,000, chiefly among the farmers of the country, and going to more hours than any weekly newspaper published on the face of the earth is

The Leading Champion of the People in this as well as in other great contests in which they are engaged against the executors of monopoly.

By special arrangement with The Constitution the paper publishing this announcement is prepared to make A REMARKABLE CLUBBING OFFER, by which both this paper and The Constitution will be offered for one year at almost the price of one year's subscription to one paper.

BOTH PAPERS FOR $1.25.

THE CONSTITUTION IS THE BIGGEST AND BEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER published in America, covering the news of the world, having correspondents in every city in America, and in the capitals of Europe, and reporting in full the details of debates in congress on all questions of public interest. It is

THE GREAT SOUTHERN WEEKLY NEWSPAPER, and as the exponent of southern opinion and the purveyor of southern news it has no equal on the continent.

THE CONSTITUTION'S SPECIAL FEATURES

are such as are not to be found in any other paper in America.

THE FARM AND FARMER'S DEPARTMENT,
THE WOMEN'S DEPARTMENT,
THE CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT,

are all under able direction and are specially attractive to those to whom these departments are addressed. Under the editorial management of Clark Howell, its special contributors are writers of such world-wide reputation as Mark Twain, Bret Harte, Frank R. Stockton, Joel Chandler Harris, and hundreds of others; while it offers weekly service from such writers as Bill Arp, Sarge Plunkett, Wallace P. Reed, Frank L. Stanton, and others, who give its literary features a peculiar Southern flavor that commands it to every fireside from VIRGINIA to TEXAS, from MISSOURI to CALIFORNIA.

Do Not Delay, but send your name now. If you are already a subscriber to your home paper, and you want The Constitution only, communicate with The Constitution direct, and send One Dollar for one year's subscription with your guess in the prize contest. You can get your home paper, however, publishing this and The Constitution, for almost the price of one, and remember that all clubbing subscriptions must be sent to this paper and not to The Constitution.

THE CONSTITUTION is among the few great newspapers publishing daily editions on the side of the people against European Domination of our money system, and it heartily advocates:

1st. The Free Coinage of Silver,

Believing that the establishment of a single gold standard will-wreck the prosperity of the great masses of the people, though it may profit the few who have already grown rich by federal protection and federal subsidy.

2d. Tariff Reform,

Believing that by throwing our ports open to the markets of the world and levying only enough import duties to pay the actual expenses of the government, the people will be better served than by making them pay double prices for protection's sake.

3d. An Income Tax,

Believing that those who have much property should bear the burdens of government in the same proportion to those who have little.

Two Thousand Dollars in Cash Prizes!

To those who take advantage of this clubbing offer The Constitution will distribute Two Thousand Dollars in CASH PRIZES, by the following plan: We have placed in a sealed envelope in the keeping of the Treasurer of the State of Georgia, and locked in the great vaults of the State, a legal tender note, which like all federal paper currency is numbered, each note of every denomination issued by the government having its own number. The number on this particular note is composed of eight figures, and on the arrangement of these figures as they appear on the note depends the distribution of the two thousand dollars in prizes offered.

The following figures compose } 5-3-4-0-1-0-7-8 the number of the note: }

though of course they are not given here in the order in which they appear on the note.

To those who in sending with their subscriptions a rearrangement of these figures so as to give the number as it is on the note, we will distribute prizes as follows:

$1,000 IN CASH to the person who gives the number of the note.

$500 IN CASH to the person who, not giving the exact number, comes nearest doing so.

$250 IN CASH to the person who comes second nearest.

$100 IN CASH to the person who comes third nearest.

$50 IN CASH to the person who comes fourth nearest.

$30 IN CASH to the person who comes fifth nearest.

$15 IN CASH to the person who comes sixth nearest.

$10 IN CASH to the person who comes seventh nearest.

$5 IN CASH to the person coming eighth nearest.

$5 IN CASH to the person coming ninth nearest.

$5 IN CASH to the person coming tenth nearest.

$5 IN CASH to the person coming eleventh nearest.

$5 IN CASH to the person coming twelfth nearest.

$5 IN CASH to the person coming thirteenth nearest.

$5 IN CASH to the person coming fourteenth nearest.

$5 IN CASH to the person coming fifteenth nearest.

$5 IN CASH to the person coming sixteenth nearest.

Each of these prizes will be delivered in cash, subject to the following conditions: (1st). Each guess must accompany a clubbing subscription to the paper publishing this announcement and The Constitution at the above announced clubbing rate, which must be in cash. (2d). All clubbing subscriptions must be sent through the paper making this publication and not to The Constitution. (3d). This offer is to be closed on the first of May, 1895, and guesses received with subscriptions after that time will not be counted in the distribution of these prizes. (4th). Should there be any ties in the guesses, the prizes will be divided. (5th). Every new or renewal subscription to either of the two papers will be entitled to a guess with every subscription.

THE CONSTITUTION

heartily advocates an EXPANSION OF THE CURRENCY

Until there is enough of it in circulation to do the legitimate business of the country.

If you wish to help in shaping legislation to these ends, GIVE THE CONSTITUTION YOUR ASSISTANCE, lend it a helping hand in the fight, and remember that by so doing you will help yourself, help your neighbors, and help your country!

AS A NEWSPAPER:

THE WEEKLY CONSTITUTION has no equal in America! Its news reports cover the world, and its correspondents and agents are to be found in almost every baliwick in the Southern and Western States.

AS A MAGAZINE:

It prints more such matter as is ordinarily found in the great magazines of the country than can be gotten even from the best of them.

AS AN EDUCATOR: It is a school house within itself, and a year's reading of THE CONSTITUTION is a liberal education to any one.

AS A FRIEND AND COMPANION: It brings cheer and comfort to the fireside every week, is eagerly sought by the children, contains valuable information for the mother, and is an encyclopaedia of instruction for every member of the household.

JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN.

"ETERNAL VIGILANCE IS THE PRICE OF LIBERTY."

ESTABLISHED 1837.

JACKSONVILLE, CALHOUN COUNTY, ALA., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1894.

VOLUME 58.

HON. W. C. Oates has tendered his resignation as a member of congress to take effect November 5 next.

The people all through this section are much more hopeful than for two years. They all feel that better times are in sight.

The English committee sent to the United States to investigate and denounce Southern lynchings will do well to return to their own country and attend to their own business.

Since our last issue a number of our Jeffersonian friends have been to us and said that we were correct when we stated many of the Jeffersonians could not be led to the support of a life long Republican.

We are anxious to extend the circulation of the REPUBLICAN, and ask that our friends will be so kind as to call attention of their neighbors to the splendid clubbing rates which we offer.

JOHN H. INMAN, of New York, after spending several days in the coal fields of Alabama, stated in Atlanta a few days since that the South is unquestionably on the eve of an era of great development and prosperity.

If any Jeffersonian in Calhoun county votes the Republican ticket in the congressional election he will regret it as long as he lives. No Calhoun county raised man can vote for Aldrich and fail to blush when forced to tell his children of it in after years.

If any Jeffersonian votes for Aldrich for congress, he should then all fairness change his name from Jeffersonian Democrat to Hamiltonian Republican. For certainly there is nothing wider apart politically than a Jeffersonian Democrat and a Republican.

PRIVATE JOHN ALLEN has been renominated for Congress by the First District in Mississippi. The convention which nominated him passed a resolution favoring the free and unlimited coining of both gold and silver at the present ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for any international agreement. This is the right way to talk it out.

Do not forget to mention the fact to your neighbor that by paying one year's subscription in advance he can get the Jacksonville REPUBLICAN and the Farmers Home and Guide for one dollar, and the Jacksonville REPUBLICAN and the Atlanta Constitution one year for $1.25. These low prices are made to secure a large number of new subscribers by the last of this year.

The older men among the Jeffersonians will never support the Republican candidate for congress in this district. They have seen with their own eyes the treatment Alabama received at the hands of the Republican party. They are among the men who redeemed Alabama by the election of Houston; and they can never be induced to vote for the party which they have fought all their lives.

In reading a recent issue of Bob Mosely's paper, we notice that he says W. F. Aldrich is a life long Republican, and that he now believes in the basic principles of the Republican party. What are these basic principles? They are high tariff, class legislation, centralization, pension extravagance, contraction of the currency, and suppression of the South. If these principles suit you, then you can afford to vote the Republican ticket.

Opening of the Normal School.

The opening of the Jacksonville State Normal School last Tuesday was one of the best openings this school has ever had. The attendance was large, and many have entered during the week who were not present Tuesday morning.

Among the number, we notice quite a number of boarding pupils, and learn that a number of others will come during the next few weeks.

One great trouble has been during the last several years to get board here for students; but we are glad to know that our people are now feeling more interest in the school than ever before, and are willing to take boarders. Prof. Forney already has places in the homes of the best families here for a number of other boarders, and none need stay away for fear they cannot get good board.

This school was never in better condition than now. It has for its President Jacob Forney, a graduate of the State University of Alabama, and who graduated at that university with the first honor of his class. Prof. Forney is not only a thoroughly competent teacher, but is unquestionably one of the finest disciplinarians in Alabama. Under his very efficient management of the school last year there was at no time the least ripple of disturbance.

Associated with President Forney, is Prof. J. D. Wright, a graduate of the State University of Alabama, and Misses Nisbet, Swan and Hammond, all three of whom are normal graduates, and therefore thoroughly competent teachers.

The department of music in the school will be presided over by Miss Undine Lane, who is a graduate of Shorter college, and who took the gold medal at Shorter for having become more proficient in music than any other pupil. She is not only a very efficient teacher of instrumental music, but sings beautifully, and will teach vocal music to the delight of all her patrons.

This school is worthy the support and influence of every man woman and child in Jacksonville, and we should all do everything in our power to build it up and make it a success.

PERSONAL.

Mr. John S. Lane came down from Chattanooga Saturday night and spent Sunday at home.

Miss Annie Siebles of Montgomery, is stopping at the Iron Queen.

Editor Hot Blast.

Allow me a small space in your paper for an explanation relative to a piece I saw in your issue of the 11th inst. over the signature of J. T. DeArman.

I do not wish to say anything about the taxes for I have learned long since that if the Messiah was on the board of commissioners some people would censure him, much less poor frail mortals like us commissioners. If Mr. DeArman had gone far enough with his division of the road tax I would not have said a word. There is an old saying that if you step on a dog's tail he will turn over. Hence, I am about half way over. It is a fact beyond dispute that the Anniston district has had a great deal more money on the roads until the present year than the rest of the county.

The first year we gave each beat say five hundred dollars each regardless of the number of miles. We saw that plan did not work well; then by consent of the court we employed I. L. Swan, one of the best men this county ever had, to divide the road fund. He did so with the understanding that when the roads in said Anniston district were worked up in good order we could then give more money to the other parts of the county and get all the roads in good fix, so this year we have done as was agreed to, that is, Mr. Palmer, Skelton and myself. Mr. DeArman refused to have any thing to do with the matter. You see when he could not be the bell whether he would not sleep a bit so the other three commissioners divided the road fund. Mr. DeArman made a big mistake.

Her children's tears and disconsolate hearts tell us how lovely to them was mother. Her friendship and hospitality this writer has long enjoyed, and esteems it a privilege to add his testimony to her true worth.

We feel that her character is best defined by one word, "Loyal," and would write it as her epitaph.

She possessed this as a distinguishing characteristic. God bless you, my brother and children be reared, if you would meet her again take your course toward the gate of Heaven.

Your loss is great, but it is Heaven's gain. We pray for you.

GEO. D. HARRIS.

In Memoriam.

Eliza J., wife of M. N. Coker, (nee Formby) departed this life at her home near Middleton, Ala., August 27th, 1894.

We are called upon to mourn the loss of a good, christian woman, a loyal wife, a most devoted mother and a true friend.

As a christian, she loved dearly her Master and His cause.

As a wife, her husband's desolate heart can only tell the story of how great a void is left within by her demise.

Her children's tears and disconsolate hearts tell us how lovely to them was mother. Her friendship and hospitality this writer has long enjoyed, and esteems it a privilege to add his testimony to her true worth.

We feel that her character is best defined by one word, "Loyal," and would write it as her epitaph.

She possessed this as a distinguishing characteristic. God bless you, my brother and children be reared, if you would meet her again take your course toward the gate of Heaven.

Your loss is great, but it is Heaven's gain. We pray for you.

School at Hoke's Bluff.

love a good thing as much as any body or, at least that's the way Dr. X H Miller used to sing.

Now, I do not wish to convey the idea that I have any unpleasant feeling toward Mr. DeArman but I do think he got a little off his kip. He and I have always gotten along tolerably well for commissioners. We very often differ very much but I have learned that if I could not have things my way I could not have things my way. Hoping there will be no offense taken to this I am. Respectfully,

M. N. COKER.

The White Plains Road.

Mr. Morton, our worthy county surveyor, together with Mr. John E. Pruitt, went over the Carroll survey of the proposed new road from Jacksonville to White Plains last Wednesday morning, and reports that a most excellent road can be had from Jacksonville to White Plains by building only two miles of new road; and that these two miles can be built without a very great outlay of money.

The present White Plains road will be traveled to near the four mile post going from Jacksonville. It will then turn to the left and go through Pruitt's gap, coming into the present White Plains road again about two hundred yards beyond the Hammett place on the eastern side of the mountain.

This change will make a road from Jacksonville to Choccolocco valley that a horse can trot over the entire distance of the road.

It is said that Mr. Aldrich says in November; and I don't see anything to complain at. We have had, so called hard times, until we are used to it, and have got to the point where we feel like we could stand it indefinitely if need be.

But we confidently look for better times. We've got good living times now, but we expect soon to couple on good debt paying times.

It is said that Mr. Aldrich says he is willing to spend ten or twelve thousand dollars in his congressional race; and we are looking for George F. Hoar and the Boston club to shell down the chink, and with the cotton crop, even at a low price, and the revival of business that has already started since the reform of the tariff, will brighten things up.

The Jeffersonians must take "them straight" this time and vote for either an organized Democrat or an organized Republican. That's the size of it. We know they do not specially like the organized,

but if the Republicans are not organized, who is?

And if the Republicans don't stick to their organization as close as the bark sticks to a beach log in the winter, who does?

Are the Jeffersonians going to vote for Aldrich, a Republican by birth and education, born North, educated to hate Southern people, against a Democrat who is native

Alabamaian?

Jeff Sims as good as says there is no chance for Aldrich to be elected, but if the next congress is Republican he will be seated any way.

How's that for a free ballot and a fair count! It amounts to just this:

if we can't elect our man by the people, a Republican congress will see him whether he has been elected or not. And I guess they'd do it. They stole the presidency; they have stolen numerous congressmen, and they have stolen nearly everything they've got politically, and they are no more religious now than formerly.

Dr. T. W. Ayers is the purchaser of the Jacksonville Republican. He is said to be experienced in the newspaper business, and we predict that he will use his pen in a way to make the Republican a great power for good in the State—Talladega Mountain Home.

The last meeting of the Calhoun County Sunday School Convention in Anniston was one of the most interesting sessions which the association has yet held. The attendance was large, and much interest was manifested in all the topics discussed.

The friends of Hon. John M. Caldwell will make an active canvass for him, and they are exceedingly hopeful of his chances for the nomination. He is well known in the District as an able lawyer, a simple Democrat, a man against whose private character no charge can be brought, and is in every way worthy to represent the Fourth District in Congress.

THE Gadsden Times-News made a vigorous fight against Col. Denton's nomination for congress; but since the Democratic party has placed its seal of approval upon his record, it places his name at its mast head, and will give him a loyal support. When we have the right kind of Democratic digestion, even a large mess of crow will not kill.

THE Democrats of the Fourth District will now have an opportunity of saying who they want nominated for congress in a Democratic primary where they vote directly for the candidate of their choice. Nothing can be fairer than a nomination made in this way, and we believe the people of the District will endorse the action of the committee in ordering a primary instead of conventions.

THE Aldriches seem to be in the swim with the Alabama Republicans. As we stated last week, the Republicans of this District nominated William H. Aldrich for congress. The Republicans of the Birmingham District have called on Truman H. Aldrich to make the race in that District. These gentlemen are brothers and are both prominent Republicans. DISTRICT PRIMARY.

TO BE HELD TUESDAY OCT 2.

To Nominate A Candidate For Congress in the Fourth.

In accordance with the following resolutions adopted by the Democratic Congressional Executive Committee for the 4th District of Alabama, a primary election is hereby ordered to be opened and held on the 2nd day of October, 1894, in each precinct or voting place in every county in said District, for the purpose of selecting a Democratic nominee for congress for said district, and to this end the executive committeemen in each precinct or voting place throughout said District are hereby charged with the duties conferred on them by virtue of said resolutions.

Whereas the Hon. Mardis L. Wood has tendered this committee his resignation, and same has been accepted, as the Democratic candidate for the office of representative of the 4th Congressional District of Alabama in the 54th Congress.

And whereas the time is now short for selecting a candidate for said office and for certifying his nomination to the proper authorities 30 days before election, as required by law, in order that his name may be printed on the official ballots. Therefore, be it resolved:

1. That a primary election for the selection of said candidate is hereby ordered and called for the District to be held on Tuesday the 2nd day of Oct., 1894.

2. That the qualifications of the voters shall be those prescribed by the Democratic State Executive Committee.

3. That the Beat Committee shall call the meeting, and together with two other qualified voters as managers, one of whom only shall favor the same candidate unless all the qualified voters in the beat favor the same one, shall hold said election by ballot, which shall be direct for the candidates for the District.

On motion of Mr. McLeod resolutions were adopted ordering a primary election throughout the District, and which appear in the Chairman's call for same.

The resignation of H. E. Reynolds, as one of the Congressional Executive Committeemen from the County of Shelby was laid before the Committee on motion, was accepted.

On motion, J. L. Peters was elected a member of the Committee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Reynolds.

On motion the Committee then went into executive session and at 1:30 p. m. adjourned.

Meeting of Congressional Executive Committee.

The Democratic Congressional Executive Committee met at Anniston, Ala., on Tuesday the 23rd day of September, 1894, at 11 o'clock, a.m.

Chairman, T. W. Ayers called the meeting to order and on a call of the roll of membership the following were present: T. W. Ayers, D. D. McLeod, Tipton Mullins, T. N. Crampton, T. J. Burton, P. A. Howie, R. Heine, W. B. Castleberry. The proxies of F. L. Pettus, V. B. Atkins were presented by E. C. Jones.

The Chairman then laid before the Committee the Hon. Mardis L. Wood's resignation of the Democratic nomination for Congressman of the 4th Congressional District of Alabama. The same was read and on motion accepted.

On motion of Mr. Mullins the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved 1st, That it is with much regret that we receive notice of the Hon. M. L. Wood's resignation of the Congressional nomination in this District.

2nd. That while we entertain the highest opinion of his ability, popularity and fidelity to Democracy we accept his resignation in as much as he has assigned personal reasons for such action.

On motion of Mr. McLeod resolutions were adopted ordering a primary election throughout the District, and which appear in the Chairman's call for same.

The resignation of H. E. Reynolds, as one of the Congressional Executive Committeemen from the County of Shelby was laid before the Committee on motion, was accepted.

On motion, J. L. Peters was elected a member of the Committee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Reynolds.

On motion the Committee then went into executive session and at 1:30 p. m. adjourned.

Corn to Sell.

The movement of corn from the west to the south has practically ceased. Indeed, it has been reversed, for word comes that fifty thousand bushels of corn have been bought in Decatur, Ala., to be shipped to Illinois.

This shipment is probably the first of the kind that has ever been made from the south, and it shows that our farmers have entered upon a new era so far as their home resources are concerned. Heretofore north Alabama, as well as the whole south, has been importing corn in large quantities from Illinois and other states, and while it is true that the export of corn just alluded to is largely due to a remarkable drought that cut the crop short in portions of the west, it is also true that the south has never before had corn for sale.

4. That said Managers shall forthwith count the votes, and certify the number received by each candidate, and the beat Committee men shall immediately carry or send the same to the Chairman of the County Executive Committee of their county.

5. That each Chairman of the county executive committee of the District shall forthwith, as soon as the returns are made to him from the beats in his county, cast the results, certify the number each candidate received and immediately carry or send his certification of the same to the Chairman of this committee at Jacksonville, Ala.

6. That the Chairman of this committee shall forthwith after receiving the said returns of all the votes cast in all the counties in the District, ascertain the number of votes cast for each candidate, and shall immediately and publicly declare the name of the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes in the District, and said candidate shall then be the nominee of our party for said office.

7. That in the event the Chairman of this committee is absent or unable from any cause to perform the above-imposed duties, the Secretary of this committee is hereby authorized and requested to act for the Chairman, and his acts shall be as the acts of the Chairman.

One hundred and sixty-three millions of dollars saved to the tax payers and consumers of the country by reduction of the tariff on the woolen schedule alone, and other schedules and the free list of a Democratic tariff law are object lessons that impress the beneficence of Democ-

ENEMY OF THE SOUTH.

THAT'S WHAT THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IS.

It is Opposed to Free Silver in Income Tax, and a Low Tariff.

If there is a Southern born white man in Alabama who is thinking of casting a vote on the sixth day of November for a Republican candidate for Congress, he should open his eyes, look around and see who is the friend of the Southern people.

It is a well known fact that for years the Republican party by class legislation has been grinding the very life out of the South to enrich the people of New England. By this class legislation on the tariff and questions of finance, they have robbed the people of the South until they have reduced here the per capita of the circulating medium from three to five dollars, and increased it to from ten to twenty times this amount in the northern and eastern states.

The Republican party has oppressed the people of the South until it feels that it has a right to keep its heel upon our necks and our nose to the grind stone. It can tolerate nothing which gives the South equal rights with New England.

As a proof of this assertion, we wish to quote from the recent platform of the Republican convention of the State of New York the following plank adopted on the tariff:

"We denounce northern democratic congressmen for permitting southern members to protect the chief products of their section while removing or largely reducing protective duties on the products of the north, thus permitting the South by legal enactment in time of peace to destroy our prosperity and accomplish what it failed to do by illegal enactment in time of war.

And we especially denounce the Chicago platform for its call for the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

It is perfectly clear that the Chicago platform calls for the free coinage of silver, for the coinage of silver without charge for mintage, in just as strong and unmistable language as it is possible to write it.

When the platform says gold and silver shall be coined without discriminating against either metal, it declares for the unlimited coinage of silver. Gold has an unlimited coinage, and to give silver less than this, would be to discriminate against it.

There may be some question about the ratio, some question as to whether the free and unlimited coinage of silver shall be undertaken by this country alone; but there is no question but that the Chicago platform declares for the free and unlimited coinage of silver. There is no room for a difference of opinion on this question.

republicans by voting for Aldrich for Congress?

The platform of the Republican party of New York also opposes the free coinage of silver, or any measure which it says will "lower our currency standard."

The Republican party has never failed to oppose any measure which it believed was to the interest of the South, and we cannot understand how any Southern born man can so stultify himself as to vote for a Republican to help make our national laws.

The Chicago Platform on Silver.

We have noticed in several leading newspapers recently the statement that there was no such wording in the Chicago platform as the "free and unlimited coinage of silver."

While it is true that the platform does not contain the verbiage "free and unlimited," the impression which is evidently intended to be created by saying that the words "free and unlimited" are not in the platform is not true. It is clearly the purpose of those who make the statement to leave the impression with the reader that the platform does not call for the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

When in fact it does call for it in just as strong language as if "free and unlimited" had been used.

By the free coinage is meant the right to carry silver bullion to the mints and have it coined without charge for mintage.

Now let us see what the Chicago platform says in reference to silver. Here is its wording: "We hold to the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country, and to the coinage of both gold and silver without discriminating against either metal, or charge for mintage."

If no charge is to be made for mintage, then how could it possibly be coined any freer? To say that silver shall be coined "free," puts it no stronger than to say that it shall be "coined without charge for mintage."

It is perfectly clear that the Chicago platform calls for the free coinage of silver, for the coinage of silver without charge for mintage, in just as strong and unmistakable language as it is possible to write it.

When the platform says gold and silver shall be coined without discriminating against either metal, it declares for the unlimited coinage of silver. Gold has an unlimited coinage, and to give silver less than this, would be to discriminate against it.

There may be some question about the ratio, some question as to whether the free and unlimited coinage of silver shall be undertaken by this country alone; but there is no question but that the Chicago

platform declares for the free and unlimited coinage of silver. There is no room for a difference of opinion on this question.

Why Wood Withdraws.

A representative of THE JOURNAL met Mr. M. L. Wood last night and had a short interview with him concerning his withdrawal from the congressional race. Mr. Wood was perfectly candid and made no secret whatever of the matter of his withdrawal.

He said that a short time after his nomination he had received a notification from the treasury department of his appointment as district commissioner of Internal Revenue with urgent solicitation of his acceptance of the same, and that he had the matter under careful consideration ever since. That he had consulted with the heads of the party as to the advisability of his accepting the appointment, and without a dissenting voice they agreed that in view of the urgency of the letter offering him the appointment he ought to accept it. This was the reason and the sole reason for his withdrawal from the congressional race.

published at ATLANTA, GA., and having
A CIRCULATION OF MORE THAN 156,000, chiefly among the farmers of the country, and going to more homes than any weekly newspaper published on the face of the earth is
The Leading Champion of the People in this as well as in other great contests in which they are engaged against the exactions of monopoly.

By special arrangement with The Constitution the paper publishing this announcement is prepared to make
A REMARKABLE CLUBBING OFFER, by which both this paper and The Constitution will be offered for one year at almost the price of a year's subscription to one paper.

BOTH PAPERS FOR $1.25.

THE CONSTITUTION IS THE BIGGEST AND BEST WEEKLY NEWS-PAPER published in America, covering the news of the world, having correspondents in every city in America, and in the capitals of Europe, and reporting in full the details of debates in congress on all questions of public interest. It is

THE GREAT SOUTHERN WEEKLY NEWSPAPER, and as the exponent of southern opinion and the purveyor of southern news it has no equal on the continent.

THE CONSTITUTION'S SPECIAL FEATURES

are such as are not to be found in any other paper in America:
THE FARM AND FARMER'S DEPARTMENT,
THE WOMEN'S DEPARTMENT,
THE CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT,
are all under able direction and are specially attractive to those to whom these departments are addressed. Under the editorial management of Clark Howell, its special contributors are writers of such world-wide reputation as Mark Twain, Bret Harte, Frank G. Stockton, Joel Chandler Harris, and hundreds of others, while it offers weekly service from such writers as Bill Arp, Sarge Plunkett, Wallace P. Reed, Frank L. Stanton, and others, who give its literary features a peculiar Southern flavor that commends it to every fireside from VIRGINIA to TEXAS, from Missouri to CALIFORNIA.

Do Not Delay, but send your name now. If you are already a subscriber to your home paper, and you want The Constitution only, communicate with The Constitution direct, and send One Dollar for one year's subscription with your guess in the prize contest. You can get your home paper, however, publishing this, and The Constitution, for almost the price of one, and remember that all clubbing subscriptions must be sent to this paper and not to The Constitution.

THE CONSTITUTION is among the few great newspapers publishing daily editions on the side of the people against European Domination of our money system, and it heartily advocates:

1st. The Free Coinage of Silver, Believing that the establishment of a single gold standard will wreck the prosperity of the great masses of the people; though it may profit the few who have already grown rich by federal protection and federal subsidy.

2d. Tariff Reform, Believing that by throwing our ports open to the markets of the world and levying only enough import duties to pay the actual expenses of the government, the people will be better served than by making them pay double prices for protection's sake.

3d. An Income Tax, Believing that those who have much property should bear the burdens of government in the same proportion to those who have little.

Two Thousand Dollars in Cash Prizes!

To those who take advantage of this clubbing offer The Constitution will distribute Two Thousand Dollars in CASH PRIZES, by the following plan: We have placed in a sealed envelope in the keeping of the Treasurer of the State of Georgia, and locked in the great vaults of the State, a legal tender note, which like all federal paper currency is numbered, each note of every denomination issued by the government having its own number. The number on this particular note is composed of eight figures, and on the arrangement of these figures as they appear on the note depends the distribution of the two thousand dollars in prizes offered.

The following figures compose } the number of the note: } 5-3-4-0-1-0-7-8

though of course they are not given here in the order in which they appear on the note.

To those who in sending with their subscriptions a rearrangement of these figures so as to give the number as it is on the note, we will distribute prizes as follows:

|----------------|---|
| $1,000 | IN CASH to the person who gives the number of the note. |
| $500 | IN CASH to the person who comes nearest. |
| $250 | IN CASH to the person who comes second nearest. |
| $100 | IN CASH to the person who comes third nearest. |
| $50 | IN CASH to the person who comes fourth nearest. |
| $30 | IN CASH to the person who comes fifth nearest. |
| $15 | IN CASH to the person who comes sixth nearest. |
| $10 | IN CASH to the person who comes seventh nearest. |
| $5 | IN CASH to the person coming eighth nearest. |
| $5 | IN CASH to the person coming ninth nearest. |
| $5 | IN CASH to the person coming tenth nearest. |
| $5 | IN CASH to the person coming eleventh nearest. |
| $5 | IN CASH to the person coming twelfth nearest. |
| $5 | IN CASH to the person coming thirteenth nearest. |
| $5 | IN CASH to the person coming fourteenth nearest. |
| $5 | IN CASH to the person coming fifteenth nearest. |
| $5 | IN CASH to the person coming sixteenth nearest. |

Each of these prizes will be delivered in cash, subject to the following conditions: (1st). Each guess must accompany a clubbing subscription to the paper publishing this announcement and The Constitution at the above announced clubbing rate, which is $1.00 in cash. (2d). All clubbing subscriptions must be sent through the paper making this publication and not to The Constitution. (3d). This offer is to be closed on the first of May, 1895, and guesses received with subscriptions after that time will not be counted in the distribution of these prizes. (4th). Should there be any ties in the guesses, the prizes will be divided. (5th). Every new or general subscription to either of the two papers will be entitled to a guess with every subscription.

THE CONSTITUTION EXPANSION OF THE CURRENCY

Until there is enough of it in circulation to do the legitimate business of the country, if you wish to help in shaping legislation to these ends, GIVE THE CONSTITUTION YOUR ASSISTANCE, lend a helping hand in the fight, and remember that by so doing you will help yourself, help your neighbors, and help your country.

AS A NEWSPAPER:

THE WEEKLY CONSTITUTION has no equal in America! Its news reports cover the world, and its correspondents and agents are to be found in almost every bairwick in the Southern and Western States.

AS A MAGAZINE:

It prints more such matter as is ordinarily found in the great magazines of the country than can be gotten even from the best of them.

AS AN EDUCATOR: It is a school house within itself, and a year's reading of THE CONSTITUTION is a liberal education to any one.

AS A FRIEND AND COMPANION: It brings cheer and comfort to the fireside every week, is eagerly sought by the children, contains valuable information for the mother, and is an encyclopediad of instruction for every member of the household.

"Resolved 1st: That it is with much regret that we receive notice of the Hon. M. L. Wood's resignation of the Congressional nomination in this District.

2. That while we entertain the highest opinion of his ability, popularity and fidelity to Democracy

we accept his resignation in as much as he has assigned personal reasons for such action.

On motion of Mr. McLeod resolutions were adopted ordering a primary election throughout the District, and which appear in the Chairman's call for same.

The resignation of H. E. Reynolds, as one of the Congressional Executive Committeemen from the County of Shelby was laid before the Committee and on motion, was accepted.

On motion, J. L. Peters was elected a member of the Committee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Reynolds.

On motion the Committee then went into executive session and at 1.30 p. m. adjourned.

Corn to Sell.

The movement of corn from the west to the south has practically ceased. Indeed, it has been reversed, for word comes that fifty thousand bushels of corn have been bought in Decatur, Ala., to be shipped to Illinois.

This shipment is probably the first of the kind that has ever been made from the south, and it shows that our farmers have entered upon a new era so far as their home resources are concerned. Heretofore north Alabama, as well as the whole south, has been importing corn in large quantities from Illinois and other states, and while it is true that the export of corn just alluded to is largely due to a remarkable drought that cut the crop short in portions of the west, it is also true that the south has never before had corn for sale.

The south has a remarkable crop year, but never before has fine weather favored such a large crop of corn in the ground. We have had fine weather before, but never corn enough to supply our own wants and those of the west as well. This shows beyond all question that our farmers have reached the point where they are able to sustain themselves. This year they have planted so largely of breadstuffs that they have a surplus with which they can supply the deficiency in the west.

In Georgia the farmer who has not made considerably more than a year's supply of corn and wheat is a curiosite in his neighborhood, and the same may be said of the farmers throughout the south.

But one other thing remains to be done, and that is for the farmers to raise their own meat. When they have done this they will be more advantageously situated than the farmers of any other part of the world. A surplus of breadstuffs and meat means no debt, and no debt means prosperity. So far as Georgia is concerned, the farmers have gone more largely into the business of hog-raising this year than ever, and the profits on the meat that is imported into this state during the next twelve months will not make anybody rich.

We advise the blizzard, cyclone, fire and drought-sufferers of the west and northwest to pull up their roots and come south. This is the only part of the country prosperous the whole year round.—Atlanta Constitution.

ENEMY OF THE SOUTH.

THAT'S WHAT THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IS.

It is Opposed to Free Silver an Income Tax, and a Low Tariff.

If there is a Southern born white man in Alabama who is thinking of casting a vote on the sixth day of November, for a Republican candidate for congress, he should open his eyes, look around and see who is the friend of the Southern people.

It is a well known fact that for years the Republican party by class legislation has been grinding the very life out of the South to enrich the people of New England. By this class legislation on the tariff, the people of the South until they have reduced here the per capita of the circulating medium to from three to five dollars, and increased it to from ten to twenty times this amount in the northern and eastern states.

The Republican party has oppressed the people of the South until it feels that it has a right to inflict its heel upon our necks and our nose to the grind stone. It can tolerate nothing which gives the South equal rights with New England.

As a proof of this assertion, we wish to quote from the recent platform of the Republican convention of the State of New York, the following plank adopted on the tariff:

"We denounce northern democratic congressmen for permitting southern members to protect the chief products of their section while removing or largely reducing protective duties on the products of the north, thus permitting the South by legal enactment in time of peace to destroy our prosperity and accomplish what it failed to do by illegal enactment in time of war.

And we especially denounce the Democratic representatives from this, the greatest manufacturing state in the union, whose annual manufactured products exceeds that of the entire south by $600,000,000, for their treachery and cowardice in aiding the passage of a sectional tariff bill that has crippled the industries and reduced the wages of workmen and that levies a tax on incomes which is a tax on prosperity.

We ask all who favor a discontinuance of tariff agitation or who believe in the restoration of protection to elect republican members of the house of representatives in every district, so that our industrial interests may be properly represented in the councils of the nation.

Think of it! because the Democratic party has made an effort to relieve the people of the South from the class legislation which has practically ruined us, the Republicans raise the howl that the Democrats are destroying the prosperity of the North in favor of the South. Or as they express it, the Northern Democrats are permitting the South to do by legal enactment in time of peace what it failed to do by illegal enactment in time of war.

God knows if any section has been discriminated against it is the South, and may the Lord have mercy upon any Southern born man who reads the above and then votes for a Republican for Congress.

After the North has grown rich by oppressing the South, the Republicans would now have the goldbug, the millionaire, the bondholder, go unfaxed, and speak of a just income tax, as a tax on prosperity. Yes, the Republican party would have the rich of New England go untaxed, and would have the poor and oppressed people of the South pay the expenses of the government, and call on all who favor such legislation as they deserve to aid in electing Republican members to Congress.

Will the people of Calhoun County, the people of the Fourth District, extend the aid asked by the

There will be service at the Baptist church Sunday morning, conducted by Rev. M. H. Lane, D. D. Members of church requested to attend as business of importance will be transacted at the close of service.

Rev. F. M. Treadaway went up to Piedmont last Friday and stayed over to attend the meeting being conducted there by Rev. Mr. Andrews until Monday. He reports that much interest is being manifested in the meeting. The meeting is being held in the Methodist church. This church was organized in 1855, and Mr. Treadaway was one of the charter members.

We direct special attention to the change in the advertisement of Ullman Bros., to be found in this issue. This is one of the largest business houses in this section of Alabama. They keep an unusually fine stock of goods, and sell them cheap. When you go to Anniston go and see them. They will always treat you right.

The East and West will change its schedule next Monday. After that date, the east bound train will arrive in Jacksonville at 12:10 p.m. The west bound at 2:14 p.m. This schedule will make connection with the L. & N. at Dukes, both going to and from Gadsden. The schedule on Sunday will differ from that during the week. On Sunday the east bound will arrive in Jacksonville at 9:31 a.m. The west bound at 4:28 p.m.

ANNISTON.

Pursuant to call, the Democratic Congressional Executive Committee met here Tuesday. The action of the committee resulted in a call for a primary election to nominate a candidate for congress, Mardis L. Wood having tendered his resignation as the Democratic nominee.

The call for a primary was almost unanimous on the part of the committee, and the people endorse it almost to a man. The only objection that could possibly be urged is the short time in which the candidates have to present their claims, yet, under the primary, they have a longer time than if a regular convention had been called.

In the person of Hon. John M. Caldwell, Anniston and Calhoun county have a candidate for Congress, who will make a representative of whom all of us will be proud. He is a man of high moral character, of scholarly attainments, and of exalted standing as a citizen, patriot, and Christian. There is not a stain on his character; not a blot on his name. His ability is unquestioned, and we predict that Calhoun county will be solid for him in the primary of next Tuesday. Anniston will give him every vote. Caldwell is the man.

Considerable interest is being taken in the Sunday school work in the city. Last Monday a great Sunday school convention was held in West Anniston which was well attended. Judge Johnston, J. D. Kirby and others made instructive and entertaining addresses.

Miss Sallie Welchel, one of our most lovely and popular young ladies, died at her home here. Tuesday morning after a sickness of three weeks. She was a noble girl and loved by all who knew her. Her remains were carried to Dahlonega, Ga., for burial.

Capt. Plowman, of Talladega, was in the city Tuesday attending the meeting of the Executive Committee.

The last of the large number of Annistonians who have been at Schenck's springs this summer have returned to the city. Mr. and Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Julian Keith, Judge Lapsley, Lucien and W. A. Bellinger came in Monday.

Miss Clint McMillan, after a pleasant visit to her aunt Mrs. S. P. Snow, went up to Jacksonville Tuesday to visit relatives.

The S. F. U. and the Noble Institute are both doing the best they have ever done in the way of attendance. These schools are Anniston's pride.

WEAVER'S.

Mrs. Ham and Mrs. McCraw of Oxford, are visiting Mrs. R. P. Weaver.

L. G. Lamar, business manager of the Southern Female University, spent a few hours here Monday in the interest of his school.

Rev. T. G. Slaughter, presiding elder preached his farewell sermon at Morrisville Methodist church Sunday.

Prof. T. L. Persons, Dr. R. B. Ragan, and Mr. E. T. Clark were among the crowd of Alexandrian's, who visited Morrisville Sunday.

County Commissioner G. B. Skelton, was one of the great number who came to church at Morrisville Sunday.

Mr. Moffitt and Miss Lambert of this precinct, were married last week.

During the vacation of Prof. Alexander's school we miss the lively chatter of the school children.

Dr. W. L. Glover of Merreton, who once lived in this neighborhood, is here now looking after the iron ore interest on his old farm.

A. L. Young was painfully, but not seriously, hurt a few days since by an unruly mule.

There is a considerable amount of sickness in this part of the county. Several are having chills and the whooping cough is common among the children. Mrs. Noah Stephens has been seriously sick with a coat of paint.

W. M. Mahaffey is still quite sick with slow fever.
